

AAANZ 2013 PhD Graduate Prize

A new competition for recent PhD Graduates to be judged on Saturday 7 December 2013, prior to the Annual AAANZ conference in Melbourne.

The outstanding presentation will receive $1000 sponsored by Taylor and Francis the new publisher of the AAANZ journal.

Eligibility, Rules and Judging Criteria

Eligibility

- Candidates who have been awarded a PhD in 2012
- Candidates must be members of AAANZ

Submission

Candidates should submit their thesis abstract and, if appropriate, excerpts from their markers' reports (2–3 page maximum).

In addition, they will present their work to a judging panel in December, following the guidelines for the 3-minute thesis competition (details below).

Rules

- 1) A single, static PowerPoint slide is permitted
- 2) No additional electronic media
- 3) No additional props
- 4) Presentations are limited to 3 minutes maximum – competitors exceeding 3 minutes will be disqualified
- 5) The decision of the adjudicating panel is final

Judging

- 1) Communication style: was the thesis topic and its significance communicated in language appropriate to an intelligent but non-specialist audience?
- 2) Comprehension: did the presentation help the audience understand the research?
- 3) Engagement: did the oration make the audience want to know more?

AAANZ Member's name:
Contact address:
Contact email:
Contact phone number:
Institution:

Please forward this form along with other submission requirements to admin@aaanz.info by 30 August 2013.