The Faculty Open Lab is a place for faculty to drop in—no appointment necessary—and work with Koehler Center staff. We'll be there to offer support for all teaching and learning concerns. If you're curious about new pedagogical strategies to encourage active, engaged learning, come to Open Lab! If you'd like help with our Learning Management System, come to Open Lab! If you'd just like to get some work done on a new teaching project within earshot of someone who can offer support, come to Open Lab!

No Registration Required.

For more information, go to our Faculty Open Lab page.
