WELCOME

Thank you for being here on this beautiful Easter morning! We are excited to be with our city celebrating God's love, hope & life.

THE RESURRECTION OF JESUS on Easter morning is when creation gets a second chance to correct what's wrong. After the beautiful events of Creation, things fell radically. A crippling and contagious brokenness enters the world, which we see evidenced on the news each night, in our relationships, and even in our own hearts.

Yet God's story doesn't end there. He continues to provide a common grace for the common good: flowers still bloom, babies still smile, farmers still farm, miracles still happen. But as the world often reminds us, we needed a firm and final answer to our brokenness. So God comes to us, as Jesus. He teaches and seeks reform in such a radical way that he is tortured and executed on a cross.

And Easter is the turning point in the story. Through Jesus' resurrection and new life, a new humanity is born! And now, the story continues, and we each have a place in it. All because of Easter morning.

WORSHIP

March 27, 2016

**Asterisk indicates when to stand.*

Bold, black text indicates when to sing or speak.

"I am trying here to prevent anyone saying the really foolish thing that people often say about Him: I'm ready to accept Jesus as a great moral teacher; but I don't accept his claim to be God. That is the one thing we must not say:

A man who was merely a man and said the sort of things Jesus said would not be a great moral teacher. He would either be a lunatic — on the level with the man who says he is a poached egg — or else he would be the Devil of Hell. You must make your choice. Either this man was, and is, the Son of God, or else a madman or something worse. You can shut him up for a fool, you can spit at him and kill him as a demon or you can fall at his feet and call him Lord and God, but let us not come with any patronizing nonsense about his being a great human teacher. He has not left that open to us. He did not intend to."

**In Christ Alone*

KEITH GETTY & STUART TOWNEND CONGREGATION, BAND, CHOIR

In Christ alone my hope is found
He is my light my strength my song
This Cornerstone this solid Ground
Firm through the fiercest drought and storm

What heights of love what depths of peace
When fears are stilled when striving's cease
My Comforter my All in All
Here in the love of Christ I stand

There in the ground His body lay
Light of the world by darkness slain
Then bursting forth in glorious Day
Up from the grave He rose again

And as He stands in victory
Sin's curse has lost its grip on me
For I am His and He is mine
Bought with the precious blood of Christ

No guilt in life no fear in death
This is the power of Christ in me
From life's first cry to final breath
Jesus commands my destiny

No power of hell no scheme of man
Can ever pluck me from His hand
Till He returns or calls me home
Here in the power of Christ I'll stand

HYMN

The Holy City

STEPHEN ADAMS

JOHN EASTERLIN, CHANCEL CHOIR, AND ORCHESTRA

Last night I lay a-sleeping, there came a dream so fair,
I stood in old Jerusalem, beside the temple there,
I heard the children singing, and ever as they sang,
Me thought the voice of angels, from heav'n in answer rang.
Me thought the voice of angels, from heav'n in answer rang.

Jerusalem, Jerusalem, lift up your gates and sing,
Hosanna in the highest, Hosanna to your King!

And then me-thought my dream was changed,
the streets no longer rang,
Hushed were the glad Hosannas the little children sang,
The sun grew dark with mystery, the morn was cold and chill,
As the shadow of a cross arose upon a lonely hill,
As the shadow of a cross arose upon a lonely hill,

Jerusalem, Jerusalem, Hark! how the angels sing,
Hosanna in the highest, Hosanna to your King!

And once again the scene was changed,
new earth there seemed to be,
I saw the Holy City beside the tideless sea,
The light of God was on its streets, the gates were open wide,
And all who would might enter, and no one was denied.
No need of moon or stars by night, Or sun to shine by day,
It was the new Jerusalem that would not pass away,
It was the new Jerusalem that would not pass away.
Jerusalem, Jerusalem! Sing for the night is o'er!
Hosanna in the highest, Hosanna forever more!
Hosanna in the highest, Hosanna forevermore!
