WHY WE'RE DOING THIS ...

we're very excited about the new direction we're taking. we're not at liberty to share the news just yet, but it will be fresh, surprising and extremely creative!

we need to make space in our warehouse by moving out all of our current inventory. some items are less than a year old, some are custom designed and some pieces are well used, but never abused. all of these pieces still have much life left in them!

we invite you to peruse this catalogue to get an idea of what we have available for your everyday arrangements, event rentals, large-scale props, etc.

**NOTE THAT WE HAVE SO MANY ITEMS, ONLY A SMALL PORTION OF OUR GOODIES ARE SHOWN****

while we will be sad to see these items go, we are also excited to make room for something new!

we hope to see you at our one-day clearout!!!

if you're interested in any of these items, come to our clearance sale or write HELLO@MIMOSAFLOWERS.COM
