Speaker Book Approval Process

To streamline our book approval process and provide the best service to our groups and speakers, Stonecroft Ministries has refined this procedure for quicker approval while we maintain our commitment to offer our groups high quality materials. These include books that are professional looking and interesting with clear writing and purpose.

Please use the following guidelines for this process:

1. A designated volunteer leader may approve a speaker book. The speaker informs the Regional Speaker Trainer and/or Regional leadership of her desire to sell the book at the Outreach Event.
2. The designated volunteer leader within the region (identified by Speaker ministry/ Regional leadership) receives copy of the book from the speaker. The speaker is responsible for mailing a copy of the book to the Stonecroft volunteer.
3. The designated volunteer completes the Speaker Book Review Form and follows approval guidelines located on Leaders OnLine at stonecroft.org.
4. Once the book is read and approved, a copy of the Speaker Book Review Form is given to the speaker for future reference and a copy of the form is sent to the Home Office.
5. In cases where the key Stonecroft leader determines that a speaker book is not appropriate, she will either:
 - a. notify the speaker that this book will not be offered; or
 - b. notify the Home Office to send a letter to the speaker that states the book is not approved.

As with any items sold at an Outreach Event or training, the speaker or vendor should give 10 percent of the sales royalty to Stonecroft Ministries.
