Letter from the Editor

Dear Readers,

Do you have an event, non-profit, or business that you want to promote?

We would be happy to help you!

Here's how:

- By publishing press releases/articles. Please send us information in a Word document or via email text (max 550 words) with photo/image 580 pixels wide x 360 pixels high in .jpg format. Please don't send us flyers as we can't use a flyer as a post.

- Once we receive the article/press release and photo, we will publish it on NewBernNow.com. The post will then be shared in our daily subscriber emails that are sent out at 5 o'clock. The information will also be published on our social media sites.

- By posting upcoming events on NBN's Community Calendar.

- We can record 1, 2, or 3 minute phone interviews to air on New Bern's News Talk Radio Station WNOS 107.5FM and 1450AM, shared on NBN's website, added to our bi-weekly Podcast Show, and our iTunes channel. Please note, if we interview you about your business, we cannot air it on the radio unless you are hosting a special event for a local charity.

- We can also promote your efforts by creating a video series. The video will be uploaded to NBN's Youtube Station, website, and shared on our social media sites.

- The Ledger Magazine is published quarterly. Please send us your information by the 18th of September, December, March, and June. The Ledger is available online and in print. A lot of people like the print edition, but there's a lot of readers who prefer reading it online because we provide links to websites so they can learn more about their interests.

Please let me know if you have any questions or give me a call at 252-638-6858 or send an email to info@newbernnow.com. We're looking forward to helping promote your efforts!

I hope that you enjoy this quarter's Ledger. Please know that it's an extension of NewBernNow.com which is updated on a daily basis.

Sincerely,

Wendy Card

Major Antique Auto Show coming to New Bern

Many near priceless and seldom seen vintage automobiles from throughout the country will be showcased on the streets of Historic Downtown New Bern, N.C., Saturday, August 13, in the Antique Automobile Club of America's 2016 Southeastern Fall Meet.

Billed as a premiere juried exhibition of heritage and classic vehicles, the meet is expected to attract upwards of 350 automotive marvels exemplifying the evolution of passenger vehicles over the last century, according to Marshall Van Winkle, meet co-chairman and a member of New Bern's First Capital chapter of the AACA which is hosting the event.

Entries will span the ages from a 1903 one-cylinder Cadillac, a 1904 Pope-Toledo Type V and a "Barn Fresh" 1924 Model T to a 1973 Mohs Safarikar and a 1991 Cadillac Eldorado. Muscle cars, race cars, classic Ford Thunderbirds, Chevrolet Corvettes, and Pontiac GTOs will be featured along with Auburn and Model A Speedsters, Studebaker Golden Hawks, Hudsons, DeSotos and various other American and foreign marques

"This meet is a celebration of automotive history that not only features cars but also trucks, jeeps, motorcycles, mopeds, fire engines and other motorized vehicles that are at least 25 years old and were produced to be driven on the road and to carry passengers," Van Winkle said.

The vehicles will be displayed on sections of Broad, Middle, Pollock, and Craven streets in the heart of the downtown area which will be closed to vehicular traffic to create the show field that will be open free to the public.

Thousands of car enthusiasts and the curious are expected to turnout for the meet which begins with vehicles entering the show field at 7 a.m. and ends with the completion of judging at 3 p.m. Attendees will not only get to see treasured vehicles of the past, but also will be treated to a special automotive-education program for youth and the much acclaimed Take-Apart-T demonstration featuring a team that disassembles and reassembles a 1917 Ford Model T in minutes. Both events will take place at the intersection of Middle and Pollock streets beginning at noon.

AACA members will begin arriving in the host city two days before the judging for a series of member-only activities, ranging from roundtable discussions and judges training to seminars and various social events. The three-day program concludes with an awards banquet Saturday evening at the New Bern Riverfront Convention Center. Awards will be presented to winners in various classes ranging from historical preservation of original features to daily drivers, and from un-restored race cars to special interest vehicles.

"The AACA's selection of New Bern to host this national meet was a major coup for the club and the city," Don Temple, president of First Capital said as he praised city leaders for their cooperation in planning the event and promoting the city as a welcoming, must-see destination for AACA members. "This is a win, win, win situation for all concerned. Meet goers will revel in the prowess, styling and grace of unforgettable automotive engineering, the AACA will advance its mission of preserving automotive history, and the local economy will be spurred as visitors frequent our hotels, restaurants, shops and various attractions", he added.

Charles Wells, meet co-chairman responsible for logistics, noted that "New Bern has been a popular show place for the AACA which has sponsored several meets in the city over the years, including Grand National Meets in 2002 and 2010, the latter of which attracted 511 entries, the second most in Grand National Meet history at the time. This is the sixth AACA national meet hosted by First Capital and our goal is to ensure its success by enriching attendees with indelible images of automotive masterpieces and a vibrant, hospitable, culturally rich city."

Founded in 1935, the AACA is the world's largest automotive historical society with 60,000 members and 363 regions and chapters in 41 countries. Headquartered in Hersey, Pa., it sponsors a dozen or more meets annually across the country. New Bern's First Capital is one of 14 AACA chapters in North Carolina.

The above information was provided by New Bern's First Capital Chapter of the AACA.

Earl of Questers Cemetery Tours

Join the Earl of Craven Questers for the Cedar Grove Cemetery Tour every Saturday through November. Tours begin at 4pm at the Weeping Arch on Queen Street, no advance reservation required.

Some news about the Earl of Craven Questers: Our chapter received a $2,000 grant from the International Questers to restore and preserve monuments that are in dire need of care before they are permanently damaged or destroyed. We are really excited to get going on this project but need to wait until the experts can come to New Bern to do the work.

In the meanwhile we are continuing our weekly tours and periodic clean up at Cedar Grove.

In addition to our tours we also host luncheons in our homes in the Historic District. The homes are beautiful and the lunch is delicious, light Southern cuisine. A really fun outing for a group is a lunch with a tour before or after. For more details please call Cathy O'Brien 633-4682.

Craven County Summer Clean Sweep: This is an opportunity to clean up roadsides, streams, parks and other sites in need. Any amount of volunteer time and effort you can contribute will be helpful and appreciated. We will meet at the picnic shelter at Lawson Creek Park in New Bern at 9am on August 6th to distribute bags and directions to sites in need (if you don't have a site already picked out). Or you can make arrangements ahead of time by calling 252-633-1477.

We'll be talking about going out & about with baby- nursing in public, nursing in a carrier, dealing with distractions, travel tips, encouragement, etc. will be covered. Babywearing International will also be there for you to try on carriers. We'll share a dessert potluck. Bring the whole family! For more information call La Leche League of New Bern at 252-635-6455.

Craven County Partners In Education's Stuff the Bus Event: As school begins, school supply lists are made available to students and parents, but not all students are able to arrive the first day of school with the items required to put them on the road to success; some parents simply can't afford to purchase the items needed. To assist those students, Partners In Education (PIE), in partnership with Craven County Schools will have bright yellow school buses and colorful totes set up in front of the three Walmart Stores in Craven County on August 6 from 10am - 2pm (New Bern - 3105 Dr. M.L. King, Jr., Blvd. and 2915 Neuse Blvd., and Havelock - 566 U.S. 70). Generous shoppers can donate school supplies for students who have been identified as in-need by their school counselors. A shopping list will be available the day of the event, is currently available on the PIE website at CravenPartners.com and is listed on the individual schools' websites.

The United Way of Coastal Carolina held a ribbon cutting at the Born Learning Trail at Kidsville. This is the first Born Learning Trail installed in Craven County. The United Way of Coastal Carolina in conjunction with New Bern Parks & Recreation, BB&T Lighthouse Project, and through the generosity of Ken & Dru Wilkins installed the areas first Born Learning Trail at Kidsville located at West New Bern Recreation Center. The United Way of Coastal Carolina's 2016 Day of Action included installing the early childhood education signage, woodwork improvements and new landscaping around the park. Born Learning is about lasting community change: changing the minds of opinion leaders and elected officials, changing programs, policies or budgets to strengthen support for early learning and changing early childhood systems. Everyday life is a learning experience for children. Born Learning is a public engagement campaign that helps parents, grandparents and caregivers explore ways to turn everyday moments into fun learning opportunities.

The City of New Bern will move forward with development of its City Market and Workforce Development Training Center at 205 First St., thanks to a generous grant of $549,000 from the Golden LEAF Foundation. The market and training center complex is part of a $2.8 million dollar project to improve the First Street corridor, one of the gateways to New Bern. The First Street improvements will include transportation and pedestrian enhancements on both sides of the street, along with access and landscaping improvements to the Lawson Creek Park entrance. The concept for the City Market and Workforce Development Training Center was first presented to the Board of Aldermen in March and includes renovations to the site to create expandable classrooms, office space, a commercial kitchen, and a "makers' space" for entrepreneurs. For more information, visit the City of New Bern's website or call 252-636-4000.

Your Neighbor May be a Veteran

The estimated population of Craven County is 104,439 of which, as reported by the North Carolina Department of Veteran Affairs, 14,748 are veterans receiving medical or combat related benefits. Factor in family members and this number is closer to 20,000.

What is a veteran? A veteran is a man or woman who at one time in their life signed a blank check payable to the United States of America for up to and including their life to defend the freedom and liberties of the citizens of America.

Veterans of WWII, Korea, Vietnam, Iraq, Afghanistan and multiple Peace Missions around the globe once were just regular men and women. Peace time citizens that believed in the American basic values of family, church, hard work, bettering ourselves and our community. It's important to note that veterans don't start wars...they execute the means to end war and secure peace. Veterans are men and women that answered the call to duty and we gave our very best. We have since, as our Nation's policies changed, laid down our weapons and broke bread with our enemies. But the experience of combat lingers on. Combat has a way of changing the fiber of one's soul; it may leave you with a hollow feeling, feelings for which there are no words to describe. It's private, only fellow veteran brothers and sisters understand. We don't talk about it.

What we do is support and try to heal our veteran brothers and sisters and do good work for those in our community in need. You can find us building handicap ramps, serving in the RCS soup kitchen, at the Veteran Home in Kinston, distributing used, but in good condition, home medical equipment, helping veterans obtain earned veteran benefits, working the emergency financial assistance or suicide hot line, and multiple other veteran or community volunteer activities. Of major concern is helping new veterans cope and adjust to returning to their loved ones and community.

We are proud to be veterans. Next time you see your neighbor ask him or her if they are a veteran, if the answer is "Yes" please say, "Thank you for your service, welcome home".

Doberet Owsley, Veteran and Chairman, Craven County
Veteran's Council, 252-636-5543

The New Bern Historical Society is looking for a few good ghosts. They are seeking both veteran and new ghost actors to portray the historic characters in this year's Ghostwalk, Whispers From the Past. Ghostwalk brings to life noted personalities from New Bern's past right in the very locations they may have been seen. There's no need to worry though, all the apparitions in these stories are from the pages of history, not from science fiction. Mickey Miller, Executive Director, is looking for volunteers, both men and women, ages 18 and up to play the phantom roles, "We'd like actors who are interested in this fun and exciting event, and who can give the time for the event's three days". Auditions will be held August 11 at 7pm at the Attmore-Oliver House at 511 Broad St. No preparation is necessary. Actors will be asked to read from scripts. Those selected will perform at one of 16 ghost sites including Cedar Grove Cemetery. Ghostwalk will take place the evenings of October 27-29. If you are interested call the New Bern Historical Society office at 252-638-8558.

Mark your calendars for MumFest 2016.
