Friends

An incomplete angel named Clarence once told a despondent banker named George, “No man is a failure who has friends.” Whether your friends are people, diamonds, or dogs, friendship is the basis for a happy and successful life. According to the musical theme from the popular TV show, friends are there for you – always. The Space Coast Writers’ Guild’s forthcoming anthology, Friends, is a collection of stories about friendship in all its forms.

Submission Guidelines: All SCWG members in good standing are allowed one free submission (fiction, non-fiction, poetry, essays), no longer than 5,000 words. Submissions must be sent as an email attachment in MS Word format (DOC, DOCX) to stilley@scwg.org. The submission cannot be previously published, or currently under review elsewhere. Photographs and drawings are welcome and must be in JPG or PNG format at 300dpi. All submissions must be accompanied by a 75-word author biography and a 1"x1" author digital photograph. The SCWG reserves the right to edit or decline submissions. Friends will be published through Amazon.com in Kindle and print formats by Thanksgiving.

Important Dates: Submit your work by Friday, September 30, 2016 for consideration.

Note: Not a SCWG member? No problem! Submit your work, along with a $40 non-refundable entrance fee, and you're in. Plus, you get one full year of membership in the SCWG. Contact the President, Scott Tilley, at stilley@scwg.org for more details.
