Learning Objectives:

1. To identify and understand the complexities of aging in individuals with developmental disabilities;
2. To introduce the Health Care Access Research & Developmental Disabilities tools and the Regulated Health Professions Act;
3. To gain understanding of new legislation in our sectors that affect our roles and responsibilities;
4. To promote cross sector system collaboration, networking and planning.

Who should attend?

Front line staff, managers, supervisors, clinicians who are engaged in supporting individuals with developmental disabilities who also experience age-related changes working in:

- Developmental service agencies
- BSO
- Long Term Care
- CCAC
- Mental Health and Addiction agencies
- Geriatric or aging service agencies
- Hospitals

Please contact Kelly Stockdale, Program Assistant for the Central West Network of Specialized Care at kstockdale@cwsds.ca for the registration form.

Due to the anticipated interest in this event initial registration will be limited to 8 staff per agency.

If you wish to register more, please contact Kelly prior to registration to access our waitlist.

Please note: if you are outside the Central West region please contact Kelly prior to completing the registration form as preference is given to agencies/staff within the CW region.

Thank you.
