

BE GENEROUS

A great knight considers others more important than himself and is thus generous and willing to share what he has with friends and those in need.

Remember that each family & each boy's needs are unique. Pray & make a personalized plan for your son(s).

SCRIPTURE TO LIVE BY

- 1 TIMOTHY 6:17–19, Being rich in good works and generosity

CONVERSATIONS TO HAVE

- Can you remember a time when someone was generous with you? Tell me about it?
- Practice saying Largesse. (*lar*zhjess* – Google can help!) It's a French word that literally means, "Big-hearted"
- How can you live big-hearted in everyday ways?
- What can you be generous with? (your time, your talent, your money, your smiles, etc...)

BOOKS TO READ

- St. George and the Dragon – George gives away all of his reward to the villagers.
- The Kitchen Knight – example of hospitality and generosity on the part of King Arthur and Lancelot
- Clown of God – one of my favorite books of all time. I cry every time. Such a powerful story of giving.
- A Christmas Carol

THINGS TO DO

- Challenge each other to be generous with your possessions (sharing), time, talent, and money this month.
- Plan for a way to earn money for a charity or participate in some kind of clothing/food drive in your area!
- Be counter-cultural. Invite people over! Have your kids help plan your time together – food, what to do, toys to share, etc...

MAKE IT A COMMUNITY AFFAIR

- Plan a fundraiser with friends.
