

Computer learning company continues affordable training with QuickBooks Pro 2009 training course.

LOS ANGELES July 20, 2009 -- Simon Sez IT, LLC (<http://www.SimonSezIT.com>), a leading online computer learning company based in Los Angeles, has released a new Introductory to QuickBooks Pro 2009 training course.

SimonSezIT.com offers their Introduction to QuickBooks Pro 2009 course via an online subscription or on a CD available at the company's eBay store. The online subscription, which includes access to over 600 training tutorials covering numerous software applications, is $17 per month or $97 per year. The QuickBooks Pro training CD is $8.97 which includes free shipping to the United States and Canada. Both the online QuickBooks training course and the CD course include 55 video training tutorials covering various QuickBooks topics.

When asked how SimonSezIT can offer training at such a low cost, company president and founder Simon Calder replied, "Our business model is simple: Minimize our marketing, advertising and packaging. That helps reduce our costs and ultimately cost to the customer. It's a win for the environment too. If more companies followed our lead by reducing plastic CD and DVD jewel cases and packaging, consider the positive impact it would have on reducing waste."

Including a training course for a small business accounting package in their library is new territory for Simon Sez IT. "During the difficult economic climate of today, affordable computer learning offers great value not only to job seekers but to the employed and small business owner as well," explains Calder. He adds, "Offering a training course covering an application designed for the small business owner is new for our company and we are thrilled to be able to expand our offerings to this integral sector of our economy. It's the same high quality and affordable computer training they'll find with all of our products."
