From the Heart

Congratulations go out to Elsbeth Meyer regarding her baptism last Sunday! It was great for the community to get to hear the bell ringing again!

We appreciate the music ministry for bringing Aaron Shust in for last weekend's concert. Aaron did a nice job of leading us in worship and it made for a great Saturday night.

I kicked off the proposed Mission Statement roll out last Sunday, with a look at Joshua 1 and the Great Commission in Matthew 28:19-20. Your pastors believe that Salem must be a place where disciples are making disciples. We also believe that this must be our focus, purpose, message, and mission. You should have received a note with details about this in the mail recently. The statement being proposed is related to, but much more succinct, than the current mission statement: We will glorify God, making disciples who pursue Jesus, and share His story.

Thank you for all you do for the Kingdom, here at Salem and beyond.

Your Pastor,

J Beckett
