

A WORLD OF OPPORTUNITIES

“Abbott helps improves people’s lives and I wanted to work for a company that helps people” – New employee, Abbott Cherrywood

With a long and deep presence in Ireland, Abbott is one of the country’s largest healthcare companies with operations in all four provinces. Since 2005 Abbott has invested almost €700m in operations in Ireland. Abbott sites manufacture products that are distributed all over the globe.

Abbott in Ireland offers the opportunity to embrace city living or to move closer to a fulfilling position closer to home with locations in Clonmel, Cootehill, Donegal, Dublin, Longford and Sligo. We offer immense career opportunities both within sites as well as cross-site and internationally.
