BASTROP

Bucket List

1

Take A STEP BACK INTO HISTORY

There are more than 130 historic sites in Bastrop including homes, churches, civic and commercial structures. Styles ranging from Double Log Houses to Greek Revival, Victorian, Prairie and Classical Revival all tell the history of the region in architecture and can still be seen today.

2

Sample A MOONSHINE FLIGHT

Moonshine tasting is a Bastrop must. Try the newest creation from husband and wife team, Stephen and Cheri Todee at Copper Shot Distillery. They use local ingredients, even their own rainwater, to handcraft all of their American distilled spirits on-site. Enjoy live music every Friday and Saturday evening.

Music TO YOUR EARS

Craving live music? You'll find it everywhere in Bastrop. The musical history of Texas is as wide and deep as the majestic Colorado River itself. Songwriters serenaded by firelight at cozy restaurants and bars along the Colorado River and big bands and country singers make for festive foot-stomping events around town.

4

Zip THROUGH THE TREE TOPS

Strap into one of six side-by-side lines placed throughout the park and get the best view possible of the stunning McKinney Roughs Nature Park.

5

View THE BIRDS IN THE LOBLOLLY PINES

A wide variety of birds have answered the call in Bastrop, officially the Bird City of Texas as certified by Texas Parks and Wildlife. A quiet walk among the Lost Pines will give you a chance to spot more than 277 bird species, including woodpeckers, flycatchers, warblers, raptors and many more.

Welcome to Bastrop!

There are some folks who know Bastrop as a convenient stop on their way to somewhere else. As pleasant as that short visit may be, those travelers who choose to spend a day, or better yet a few days in Bastrop are in for a special treat.

I'm often asked for suggestions on what to do on a visit to Bastrop. Do what the people who grew up here do! Enjoy your choice of live music in our upbeat downtown, float on the Colorado River, try any number of our standout restaurants, hike or bike historic Bastrop State Park, fish, or swim in Lake Bastrop, visit one of our many local churches or celebrate at one of our many special events scheduled year-round. This community's Fourth of July Patriotic Fest and Lost Pines Christmas holiday celebrations are second to none.

The real treat for those who stick around for a few days is they will come to know the people who call Bastrop home. We're growing fast, but we haven't lost the authentic Bastrop charm that sets us apart. Bastrop is glad you are here — Welcome To It All!

MCKINNEY ROUGHS NATURE PARK

Here you'll find 18 miles of trails and more than 1,100 acres to explore.

BIRD WATCHING

THINGS TO DO

A SOARING EXPERIENCE

Birds of a feather flock to Bastrop — more than 277 bird species. In fact, Bastrop has been certified as one of the four official Bird Cities of Texas by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department and Audubon Texas through 2022.

It's fortunate to be located along the prolific route that millions of birds take on their way to South America and back during their biannual migration. A handful of key spots in Bastrop tend to be their favorites.

Bastrop State Park offers more than 3,500 acres for woodpeckers like the Northern Flicker, Yellow-bellied Sapsucker, Pileated Woodpecker and the Redheaded Woodpecker to visit. You can also spot flycatchers like Western and Eastern Kingbirds and Great Crested and Brown Crested Flycatchers out on the hunt. In the summer, keep an eye out for the Chimney Swift near the intersection of Park Roads 1A and 1C. The large concrete tank on the hill is their summer home.

McKinney Roughs Nature Park is another prime birding location. In its 1,140 acres, you can spot many species a day. On a good migration day, you might find yourself lucky and spy Prothonotary or Blackburnian Warblers.

In the winter, you may want to join naturalists here for the annual Lost Pines Christmas Bird Count. Test your skills and help count bird species. You may even be rewarded with a sighting of the famous American Woodcock while you're there.

Hotspots for Bald Eagles and Ospreys are the beautiful Lake Bastrop and the Colorado River. During the winter, you'll also spot thousands of American Coots and other water birds.

The South Shore park even has a designated bird viewing area. The Colorado River Refuge provides 89 acres of stunning riverside forest and upland meadows. Expect to see everything from vultures, hawks and blackbirds to vireos, hummingbirds and cranes. For city birding, Bob Bryant Park offers treed areas and a half-mile nature trail, and Fisherman's Park across the Colorado River is packed with ducks and geese enjoying the river.

Explore more wildlife at Bastrop's wildly popular park, Fisherman's Park. Here you're sure to spot ducks, geese, kingfishers and more. And that's just the half of it! Even birds feel right at home in Bastrop and we certainly hope you will too.

ARTS, CULTURE & FILM

THINGS TO DO

INDULGE YOUR INNER ARTIST

It's easy to see why Bastrop is a burgeoning arts scene. The amount of artists, musicians and creative expressions abound here make it a natural place to get in touch with your inner artist.

Bastrop has welcomed filmmakers here for many years. In fact, Bastrop County has officially been named the "Film Hospitality Capital of Texas." It's a title that recognizes the county's decades-long history of hosting production crews for everything from blockbuster movies to national commercials. Known as a music-friendly location packed full of locations, affordability and hospitality, Bastrop has hosted the filming of movies such as Friday Night Lights and Hope Floats, and TV series such as Fear the Walking Dead and Lonesome Dove.

At the heart of Bastrop's local art scene is the Lost Pines Art Center, a 12,000 sq. ft. facility with a two-story gallery and a glassblowing studio located in one of the four historic silos on the property. Besides the expansive gallery space, the Art Center offers workshops, team building activities, and public art and music events. Admission is free, and all ages are welcome, Monday-Friday 9-5, and first Saturdays 11-5.

You can also tour Downtown Bastrop to enjoy local artwork. The City of Bastrop is proud to display 3D art projects throughout the city as part of its dedication to being a Texas Commission on the Arts Cultural Arts District.

There's nothing quite like a Copper Shot Distillery Moonshine tasting where you can also settle in for some live local music. You can also find local musicians playing live at Neighbor's Kitchen & Yard.

You might consider spending an evening at the Bastrop Opera House where you can catch dinner theater, musicals and comedies in a historic 1889 building.

The Bastrop Visitors Center Scavenger Hunt at the museum is another fun activity for families. Or hop over to the Toads In Town tour where you can go on a hunt for bronze toad statues around Downtown Bastrop.

Bastrop is quickly becoming a destination for art lovers. Its flourishing art scene offers studios, shops and galleries from local artists and creative entrepreneurs. You're sure to uncover some inspiring art or discover something fascinating about yourself when you explore Bastrop's inspiring art community.

On the first Friday of every month, you have the opportunity to dive into the art scene and experience Bastrop's art and culture with local artists showcased at various downtown locations. You'll also find interactive experiences along the way as live music pours into the streets.

One thing to remember, be sure to give yourself enough time to take it all in. Our listings here will help point you in the right direction.

HISTORY

THINGS TO DO

ENJOY A HISTORIC AFTERNOON

With a rich heritage, legendary trees and Main Street charm, Bastrop is known as one of Texas' most historic small towns. Plan at least half a day to enjoy historic Main Street, Downtown Bastrop and the dozens of distinguished historic homes and buildings.

A good place to start is the Bastrop County Museum and Visitor Center for tips, maps and general information. The museum houses several exhibits you won't want to miss. Spanning more than 200 years, their exhibits include Native American history, a look at colonies founded in Bastrop by freed slaves post-Civil War and a special WWII exhibit.

Be sure to check out the Bastrop Courthouse, too. It was built in 1884 by the father of Texas himself, Stephen F. Austin, with stone and lumber cut from the local Lost Pines forest.

Although the interior is closed to the public, its historic architecture still leaves much to be admired and makes a terrific photo op.

Of course, there's also the Kerr Community Center, Bastrop's own bit of treasured history that was once a USO post for African-American soldiers stationed at nearby Camp Swift. The Center has also hosted several significant black musicians, including blues pianist Roosevelt "Grey Ghost" Williams.

In December, you can also enjoy the Holiday Homes Tour for a personally guided look inside several of Bastrop's most beautiful historic homes.

And that's just the half of it! The good ol' days are ready for you to enjoy right here in Bastrop, TX.

A WONDERFUL WAY TO BEGIN

A beautiful moment deserves a beautiful space. You'll find that at Hyatt Regency Lost Pines Resort & Spa. Both indoor and outdoor options are available, all set against 400 acres of Texas scenery. All the on-site activities from the spa and lazy river, to horseback riding, kayaking and more are also available to enjoy.

The colonial charm of the Mansion at ColoVista is well worth considering. Its 700 acres of gorgeous property includes a first-class golf course, unmatched views of the Colorado River Valley and several luxurious touches throughout the home that will bring a grand touch to your wedding.

You may also enjoy the rustic charm of venues such as Angel Mountain Events which holds its own natural beauty and is well worth a visit.

Of course, there's also the affordable luxury of Shiraz Gardens. A bridal cottage, groom's cabin, stunning water features, view of the Colorado River and multiple ceremony locations let you personalize your entire day so that everything can be just the way you dreamed it could be.

For inspired floral design and wedding planning, you'll want to reach out to Brenda Abbott Floral Design, and for hair and makeup, you can confidently place yourself in the hands of Turquoise Salon and Spa.

Bastrop's historic charm offers several memorable places for your rehearsal dinner including Neighbor's Kitchen and Yard with views of the Colorado River and scratch-made food, craft cocktails and live tunes and Store House Market & Eatery located in a historic, two-story building.

Both Simply Sweets and Johnson's Bakery can help you create desserts for the occasion, while Urban Cowboy Southern Fusion can help create the kind of food your guests will never stop talking about.

And that's just the half of it! Memorable is one of the things Bastrop does best. Check out this array of listings for all your needs.

MEETINGS & Events

BASTROP HAS A KNACK for combining work and play. Whether you're planning an event, conference or meet up, you'll find amazing outdoor adventures, a variety of places to stay and huge spaces that can accommodate groups of all sizes. In close proximity to Austin, Houston and San Antonio, Bastrop has everything you need to pull off a great time for everyone.

GATHER THE GROUP AND GET AWAY

At the end of the day, your team will love all the ways to play in Bastrop. It checks off all the other boxes, too - huge event spaces and tons of accommodations ranging from luxurious to rustic. Really the only thing bigger cities have on Bastrop is a bigger name.

When the work is done, head outdoors and go kayaking on the Colorado River, paddle boarding on the gentle El Camino Real Paddling Trail, zip lining through Mckinney Roughs Nature Park, or explore the beauty of Bastrop State Park, home to the famous Lost Pines.

For the more adventurous, there's also the Circuit of the Americas Formula One Racetrack where you can catch a race, take on the racetrack yourself and enjoy some of the biggest concerts in Texas.

If you're looking to work, stay and play all in one place, then consider the Hyatt Regency Lost Pines Resort & Spa. This AAA Four Diamond resort boasts 491 guest rooms and more than 60,000 square feet of indoor meeting space, including an amphitheater and pavilions. The resort also hosts the Woldancer Golf Club, Spa Django and Renegade Trailhead equestrian facility for a full breadth of activities for your guests.

The Bastrop Convention & Exhibition Center is another ideal meeting location. This 26,000-sq. ft. center can accommodate 750 banquet-style seats, 800 theater-style seats, 4 breakout meeting rooms and an outdoor venue space.

Or immerse yourself in the rich, natural beauty of Mckinney Roughs Nature Park where you'll find 18 miles of trails and more than 1,100 acres to explore. There are also pavilions with riverfront access perfect for outdoor gatherings and Wildflower Hall with room for 150-200 guests, as well as a full on-site kitchen. An amphitheater and meeting rooms are also available for your use and accommodations for 16-24 guests, bunk-bed style.

And that's just the half of it! If you've got a need to meet, you'll find that Bastrop has everything you need to pull it off. Use the list to the right to start the planning process.

GIVE YOUR EVENT SOME SERIOUS POTENTIAL

Big is unarguably a Texas signature. It's how we do things around here and the Bastrop Convention & Exhibit Center has room for all kinds of events, big or small. Located in our charming Historical District, it offers 26,000 square feet including flexible ballrooms, four meeting rooms, a foyer, ticket counter, two large patios and an outdoor venue space.

Parking is no worry because there's plenty of it and we can host groups from 10 to 800 guests. Really all you need to do is share your vision and we'll help you make it happen. There are several different rental space configurations, so we can set up for a corporate event, convention, concert, banquet or even a wedding – and we've done it.

There are several floorplans to consider and we can help you narrow down which would work best for your event. You can count on full audio/visual support as well as complimentary WiFi. There's no need to rent tables and chairs as they are part of the package and there is a private room that can be used as a bride's room or a prep room of any kind.

The Convention Center has a prep kitchen too, so we can accommodate catered meals for your guests. A stage, dance floor and podium are also available if you need them.

It particularly suits weddings and private events, too. You'll have plenty of room to dance and celebrate to your heart's content. Their large loading bay and multiple meeting spaces also give local florists, caterers and other vendors plenty of room to work their magic.

Through it all, you can count on the special brand of Texas Hospitality that Bastrop is known for. We will assist you in any way we can and are genuinely happy to do it. We know the area best, so if you need help finding services of any kind, we can point you in the right direction.

And that's just the half of it! If you've got an event to plan, just talk with our dedicated professionals and they'll work with you to bring your vision to life.
