The Juvenile Crime Prevention Council (JCPC) has studied the risk factors and needs of Juvenile Court-involved youth in this county and hereby publishes this Request for Proposals. The JCPC anticipates funds from the NC Dept. of Public Safety in the amount stated above to fund the program types specified below. Such programs will serve delinquent and at-risk youth for the state fiscal year 2023-2024 beginning on, or after, July 1, 2023. The use of these funds in this county requires a local match in the amount specified above The county can approve programs for 1 or 2-year funding awards, dependent on county approval and programs meeting all requirements.

The JCPC will consider proposals for the following needed programs:

Clinical Assessment
Psychological Evaluations
Substance Use Assessment
Substance Use Treatment
Problem Sexual Behavior Assessment & Treatment
Home Base Family Counseling
Individual/Group/Family Counseling

Temporary Shelter Care
Runaway Shelter Care
Specialized/Temporary Foster Care
Mediation/Conflict Resolution
Restitution/Community Service
Teen Court

Experiential Skill Building
Life Skills
Parent/Family Skill Building
Interpersonal Skill Building
Vocational Development
Mentoring

Proposed program services should target the following risk factors for delinquency or repeat delinquency:

*Juveniles who associate with other negative/delinquent/gang-involved peers *Delinquent behavior of youth under the age of 12
*Parenting skills/family criminal history *Mental health (substance use and victimization) *School behavior problems

Programs should address the following concerns as reported in the Youth Assessment Screening in Instrument for adjudicated youth:

Peer Domain: Alexander County youth involved with juvenile justice system are more likely to associate with others involved in delinquent activities and gang involvement.
Individual Domain: Substance use, mental health, and health care services are critical issues in providing assistance to youth and families involved in the juvenile justice system. Programs receiving JCPC funds shall provide appropriate access to these services.
Family Domain: Parental support and/or parental enhancement skills are needed for court-referred youth. Access to services that provide best practices and have the ability to engage families are needed.
School Domain: Youth involved with Alexander County juvenile justice system have increased risk of school behavior issues reflected in prolonged absences, suspensions, failing grades, and bullying.

Applicants are being sought that are able to address items below:

1. Program services compatible with research that are shown to be effective with juvenile offenders
2. Program services are outcome-based.
3. The program has an evaluation component
4. Program services detect gang participation and divert individuals from gang participation
5. Applicants are encouraged to be innovative and submit proposals that meet multiple program needs

Local public agencies, 501(c)(3) non-profit corporations, and local housing authorities are invited to submit applications to provide services addressing the above elements.
