Matthew 7:24-27
Therefore everyone who hears these words of mine and puts them into practice is like a wise man who built his house on the rock. The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house; yet it did not fall, because it had its foundation on the rock. But everyone who hears these words of mine and does not put them into practice is like a foolish man who built his house on sand. The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell with a great crash.

Matthew 28:19-20
Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you.

Mark 1:15
“The time has come,” he said. “The kingdom of God has come near. Repent and believe the good news!”

“In this pandemic, we’ve seen racist police officers kill innocent Black men—thinking they’re doing their job of public service. We’ve seen raging protestors loot stores, burn buildings, and kill innocent police officers and others—doing this in the name of social justice. In both cases, people’s beliefs and commitments to do good were not enough to enable them to be loving and peaceful in a crisis. Other people in the pandemic are too fearful of COVID-19 to leave their house. Or abusing alcohol to cope with quarantine, job loss, or family stress. Still others — including some pastors we talk with — are overworking and burning out. Anxiety, alcohol dependence, and overworking are spiritual formations. We’re all getting a spiritual formation. The question is what is forming you?”

John 14:6
“I am the way, the truth, and the life.”

Apprenticeship to Jesus is about learning what Jesus taught and doing what Jesus taught.

Jesus is right.

Mark 1:15
“The time has come,” he said. “The kingdom of God has come near. Repent and believe the good news!”
