GREENVILLE WEEK, SECOND HALF OF SLIAC SLATE HERE FOR RED DEVILS

With mojo back, Eureka men are looking to continue their strong play against The System

The Red Devils twice set a program record for points in a game against Greenville last year.

THE OPENING TIP-OFF

Greenville week.

It only comes around a couple of times a year, and it's here again for the Eureka men's basketball team.

The Red Devils head to Greenville on Wednesday for a St. Louis Intercollegiate Athletic Conference showdown with the league's most distinguishable team at 7:30 p.m.

Then, on Saturday, the Red Devils are back home to host Blackburn inside Christine

ABOUT EUREKA

After the Red Devils took down league leader Webster in a closely-contested 85-79 battle at Eureka last Saturday, senior Dakota Bennington said that he believed the Red Devils had their mojo back.

The win over the top team in the SLIAC moved the Red Devils to 5-3 in the SLIAC and 10-5 on the season. It also put EC back in the winning column after two back-to-back tough losses to Fontbonne and Spalding, respectively.

Now, the Red Devils are sitting a game out of first place. Greenville and Webster are at the top with a 6-2 record, and Fontbonne is 1/2 game ahead after besting Principia 87-76 on Tuesday.

The Red Devils continue to lead to SLIAC in rebounds (44.3) and free-throw percentage (74.6), and are second in scoring (89.2), blocks (5.7) and fewest points allowed (82.9), and third in field goals made (507 of 1,095).

On Saturday, EC shot a season-best 52.7 percent from the floor, going 29-for-55 and sinking 80 percent (21 of 26) of their foul shots. Senior Jordan Dehm racked up 31 points, eight rebounds and six assists. Bennington followed with 18, five rebounds and three assists, Austin Juergens added 14 and Chris Daniels chipped in with nine off the bench.

On Monday, Dehm was named SLIAC Player of the Week for the first time in his career after averaging 25.5 points, 5 rebounds and 4.5 assists against Spalding and Webster. He now leads the league in 3-point percentage at 48.1, and is fifth in rebounds per game (7.3).

Bennington is the SLIAC's leading scorer with an average of 23.8 points per game. Last season, he set a program record for points in a single game against Greenville with a 51-point effort on EC's home floor on Feb. 11.

ABOUT GREENVILLE

Greenville has taken more lumps than usual this season, coming in with a 7-8 record overall through the first 15 games. The Panthers dropped five of their first six games in non-conference play, and have suffered close losses at Fontbonne and at MacMurray.

However, they've now won four of their last five and are tied with Webster at the top of the conference with a 6-2 record. Despite the team's losing record, Greenville is still largely doing Greenville things.

Running the high-pressure Grinnell System — which aims to take 100 shots per game, shoot 50 3-pointers per game, get 35 percent of the available offensive rebounds, force 32 turnovers and take 25 more shots than the opponent — the Panthers are leading the nation in five statistical categories.

Greenville is the highest scoring team in the nation at 129.4 points per game while also averaging the most assists per game (24.1), steals per game (19), turnover margin (12.1) and 3-pointers (20). The team is also fourth in Division III with 5.8 blocked shots.

As The System demands, the Panthers run a deep rotation that features 12 players averaging between about 19 and 11 minutes per game.
