

Right to Access, reliable information

It's my right to access reliable information

I have the right to find out accurate information from the media that is relevant to me, so long as that information isn't going to be harmful or offensive to me or others. I also have the right to share information so long as it's not going to hurt others.

(Art. 13 & 17 of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child).

