

2020 NLIHC Housing Policy Forum Hotel Scholarship Form

NLIHC believes in the active participation of low-income people in all areas of our work. Our hotel scholarships are intended to make our annual Policy Forum more accessible to low-income individuals. Up to 38 shared-lodging scholarships are available for 3-4 nights at the Washington Court Hotel for low-income people to attend the 2020 NLIHC Housing Policy Forum. Hotel scholarship recipients must be current dues-paying NLIHC members and must pay their own travel and Forum registration costs. Scholarships will generally be awarded on a first-come, first-served basis with consideration given to geographic diversity and applicants who have not received scholarships in the past.
