

THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM
IS OUTDATED, INEFFICIENT, AND INTRUSIVE.

ABOUT US

The current criminal justice system is outdated, inefficient, and overly intrusive. It relies on cumbersome phone-based systems, time-wasting roll calls, and obsolete tracking mechanisms. It has led to inaccuracies, busy work for government employees, increased difficulty in compliance, and expensive incarceration.

To manage an effective pretrial or post-conviction program you need to establish visibility and control. By offering three distinct monitoring levels, National Pretrial™ provides a less intrusive method of accountability and lower administrative costs. National Pretrial™ experts can help you integrate appropriate controls, orchestrate workload deployment, and establish an effective pretrial accountability platform.

The JED™ (Judicial Evaluation Data) platform provides meaningful data points, communication, and control for caseworkers, post-conviction officers, program directors, courts, state municipalities, and administrators, all while respecting and honoring the accused.
