

PING®

TOUR NEWS

SEPTEMBER 26, 2022

U.S. TOPS AGAIN

During a tense Sunday of closely fought singles matches at the Presidents Cup, the U.S. needed every point, and Tony Finau stepped up, winning his match, giving him a 3-1 record, including two points in foursomes.

The final winning margin was 17 ½ to 12 ½ for the U.S., but the International Team narrowed the lead on Saturday, making for a boisterous final day at Quail Hollow Club.

Tony Finau won his singles match 3&1

BACK IN ACTION

Fresh off his first Presidents Cup, Sebastian Muñoz returns to PGA Tour action this week, along with a number of new faces when the season resumes in Mississippi, where a large field of 22 PING pros will tee it up.

PGA TOUR

SANDERSON FARMS CHAMPIONSHIP

The Country Club of Jackson
Jackson, Miss.
Sept. 29-Oct.2

Stewart Cink, Austin Cook
MJ Daffue, Austin Eckroat
Harrison Endycott, Harris English
Cole Hammer, Scott Harrington
Mackenzie Hughes, Stephan Jaeger
Andrew Landry, Nate Lashley
David Lingmerth
Taylor Moore
Sebastian Muñoz
Seamus Power
Matthias Schwab
Alex Smalley
Sam Stevens
Sahith Theegala
Michael Thompson
Trevor Werbylo

WINNING IN ASIA

It was a two-win Sunday in Asia, where the champions relied on PING technology.

Travis Smyth won his first title on the Asian Tour, prevailing at the Yeangder TPC in Chinese Taipei. In his bag were a G425 MAX driver, Blueprint irons, Glide 4.0 wedges and a custom PLD putter.

An amateur player won on the Japan Golf Tour at the Panasonic Open Golf Championship. He went 61-66 on the weekend utilizing a G425 LST driver, Blueprint irons, Glide 4.0 wedges, and a custom PLD Anser putter.

Travis Smyth