

Bladee - DRESDEN ER Lyrics

Something for the soul, secret art of saying no
At the top and down below, it's the star of David (Let me be alone)
Life is but a joke, and it's funny, don't you know?
I mean some thing's just for show, something's really crazy (We lo and behold)
Pop out like a pro, D9, we come, take control
With the structure, we on go, we go all the way (We take it all the way)
You hit all the notes in the piano of gold
But when I need you the most, it gets really quiet (That's the way it goes)

Watch the stars align at the same time (Same time)
Angels sing most beautiful songs
Watch the noise die down and reveal signs
Golden light shines down (Shines down)
Watch-watch the stars align at the same time (Same time)
Angels sing most beautiful songs
Watch the noise die down and reveal signs
Golden light shines down (Not for long)

Not for long
Not for long
Not for long
Not for long

Sweet, sweet, sweet, sweet
(Yes, I need you) Sweet, sweet
(Yes, I) Sweet, sweet, sweet
(Yes, I need you)
Sweet, sweet

Yes, I
Yes, I
Lost with you forever

Watch the stars align at the same time (Same time)

Angels sing most beautiful songs

Watch the noise die down and reveal signs

Golden light shines down (Shines down)

Watch-watch the stars align at the same time (Same time)

Angels sing most beautiful songs

Watch the noise die down and reveal signs

Golden light shines down

Oh, oh, oh

Oh, oh, oh
