AREA BRIEFINGS

Enjoy more time on the water by watching the required Chart and Safety briefing videos ONLINE before arriving in the comfort of your home or office. After viewing it, you are welcome to send any questions via email to our local Chart Briefer or Sales Agent. Consultations about the current weather conditions and assistance with your itinerary for the Captain and First Mate are still available at the base. Please enquire for a time of the consultations at reception and wear a mask.

BOAT BRIEFINGS

Upon your check-in procedure at the Reception, you will receive a Boat Brief list. Please read through it carefully in order to be ready for your onboard boat briefing.

Once you have boarded your boat, a technician will come aboard and explain all operating systems to you. This will include the rigging, electronics and safety equipment. Please make sure only the Skipper and First Mate are onboard for the briefing, while wearing a face mask.

Please ensure you are familiar with everything onboard your yacht before departure.

PROVISIONING

We suggest you order your provisioning online on store.moorings.com, just please note it should be done at least a week prior to your embarkation. Notice that snorkelling gear is also available for purchase as it is no longer found onboard. Make sure you select the correct The Moorings base while ordering, in this case Agana base. We will take care that your order is on board before your embarkation.

If you have preordered provisioning for your boat, please check your order is complete as a provisioning representative will come by to sign everything is in order. If you have chosen to pay on arrival, please do this at reception.

You can also stock up in town- Tommy and Studenac supermarkets are open until 10pm in high season.

LUGGAGE STORAGE

In the base are storage facilities for your bags while waiting for the yacht, whilst you are out sailing or while you are waiting for your transfer once your holiday has come to an end.

The storage area is lockable and the bags are stored at owners risk, the Moorings is not responsible for any loss or damage.

COOL BOXES

All The Moorings Catamarans are equipped with cool boxes - one per boat.

WIFI

All The Moorings yachts have WIFI options on board, so kindly ask at the Reception for more details.

ELECTRICITY

The standard voltage on all yachts is 12 volts, and 220V sockets are 2-pin European style. The base provides adapters, however it is also good to have your own if you need multiple ones. There are also plenty of USB sockets found throughout the yachts' interior.

All our catamarans have a generator, so 220VAC is available while plugged into shore power, and while the generator is running.

STARTER PACK

We try to make our yachts as comfortable as possible for all our guests. That is why, in addition to towels and linen prepared in your cabin, you will find a starter package on board to ease the first moments of your holiday, even without going to the store.

It contains: Ice, Water, Tea bags, Coffee sachets, Milk, Sugar, Dishwashing liquid, Soap, Shampoo, Sponge, Paper towels, Toilet paper, Matches, Floor cloth, WC detergent, Rubbish bags and Sanitizer for hands and surfaces. There is also a complimentary welcome basket with local olive oil and jams; and a bottle of local wine to give you a taste of Croatia.

Please understand that the quantities are just a courtesy for your start and you will need to restock according to your needs.

MORNING YACHT RETURN

All the boats are required to be back in the base by 18:00 on Friday (the day before disembarkation). This enables the base staff to give their full attention to the guests' check out procedure, and the guests to disembark the boat at 9.00 Saturday (last day) without a big commotion.

If you feel like you need one additional night outside of the base - enquire with your booking agent or directly at our reception for prices and availability of the Morning Yacht Return option, as the quantities are limited and prices differ depending on the type of the yacht. Please note that in that case you need to be back in the base at 8.30 sharp and disembarkation is still 9.00.

BARBECUE

Due to fire hazards in Croatia, it isn't allowed to have a charcoal barbecue on board, so please be understanding.

MUSIC

While most of our Stereos can be paired via Bluetooth, it's not all of them, so it is a good idea to bring a USB cable, a Jack to jack cable (standard 3.5mm) or an FM transmitter of your own.

YACHT DAMAGE WAIVER AND SECURITY DEPOSIT

Forgot to get YDW before you departed? We've got you covered! Purchase it on the reception and don't worry about possible damage! Inquire at the reception for further details.

Please be aware that in case of damage to the boat or loss of equipment onboard, the Moorings maintains the right to keep a correspondent amount of the security deposit.

If damage to the boat is done through gross negligence and above the value of the given security deposit, the guest may be liable to pay the full cost of the damage.

BEFORE LEAVING AGANA

- Please ensure you have all the kitchen equipment and bedding you require. Extra bedding and some cooking utensils are available upon request.
- Check for fins in cockpit lockers. If you require additional ones or different sizes, you will find these in the wooden box next to Dock B. Kindly return any spares to the box. Due to COVID-19 measures, we are no longer providing snorkelling masks or snorkels onboard, but they are available in the shops or on our provisioning pages.
- Check if you need kids life jackets. We have plenty at the base so ask for one in case you need it.
- Make sure your fuel and water tanks are full.
- Make sure you have your boat papers.
- Don't forget your boarding plank or electricity cords while sailing out.

OVERNIGHT OPTIONS AND PRICING

There are a number of different mooring options in Croatia; marinas, town quays, mooring buoys and anchorages.

Anchoring is possible almost everywhere, but please don't do it if you notice UPSIDE-DOWN ANCHOR- meaning no anchorage allowed. If you anchor closer than 300m from buoys or harbours under concession, you will be charged the same fee.

Mooring buoys are either owned by a restaurant- in which case you are expected to dine with them (just call ahead and make dinner reservations in order to book a buoy), or they are under concession- meaning you have to pay for your stay (usually around 200 - 300 Kn for a mono hull yacht).

Town quays or harbours are NOT the same thing as a marina- they are cheaper, not reservable, cash-only facilities and they DO NOT use VHF 17 for contact upon approach. Some have their own frequency, but most of them operate on line of sight and on first comes - first served basis. Like marinas, most of them have water, electricity and shower facilities, but are much more affordable in price (400 - 500 Kuna for a 40-foot monohull; you can view exact pricing here).

Most wide-spread brand of marinas in Croatia is the Adriatic Club International (ACI). Their prices, locations and procedures are to be found on aci-marinas.com. Make sure to check out the DESTINATIONS section of this guide for web pages of other marinas found along the coast. All of the marinas in Croatia respond to VHF ch. 17 for communication upon arrival.

All mooring fees are dependent on the size of your yacht and the marina/quay pricing policy, and for catamarans the prices are always +50 or 80% of the listed price.

COASTGUARD

During your cruise you may get stopped by the coastguard; who carry out regular checks during the season. They will check your crew list to make sure it is accurate, the registration documents of the boat, your tourist status report and you will need to show your skippers licence. You may be fined if there are passengers onboard that are not listed on the crew list, or if you do not have a valid skippers licence.

BOAT PAPERS & PROCEDURE

Your boat papers are an identification file for your yacht; they contain all of the documents required for you to charter one of our boats in Croatia. Legally these documents MUST be onboard your yacht at all times whilst cruising.

The best place to keep your papers is in the chart table and remove them only when asked. When you arrive at a marina or town quay, the marina staff or harbour master will collect your papers from you. Before you depart you must collect your boat papers and pay the mooring fee for your berth. Please take care of these papers and make sure to never leave any harbour without them. The coastguard police do occasionally carry out random checks, if you are stopped and do not have your boat papers you will be fined and your boat could be impounded.

Boat papers will not be taken from your boat in case you are spending a night on a mooring buoy. A staff member will come to your boat to charge the mooring fee for the buoy. You should always insist to see identification before paying and make sure you have a receipt.

WHEN YOU RETURN TO AGANA

RETURN TO AGANA PROCEDURE

- Please empty all holding tanks and bilges before returning to base.
- If you have NOT prepaid for fuel, please make sure to refuel your boat; note there is not a facility to refuel in Marina Agana.
- Use VHF channel 08 to call Agana Moorings base; please only radio as you approach the breakwater (Use Channel 17 for Marina Agana if you arrive outside working hours).
- You will be given assistance during the mooring procedure in the base. If you feel you need additional support while entering the port, make sure to let the harbor master know.

BEFORE YOU LEAVE YOUR BOAT

Please ensure:

- Your boat papers are left on the skipper's table. The deposit you gave is cancelled automatically by your bank.
- Your questionnaire has been completed and left on the skipper's table.
- You have had a debrief with one of our technicians; please inform the technician of any faults on the boat. This enables us to keep our boats in the best condition and ensures the boat will be ready for the next customer. Remember to wear a mask.
- Water tanks have been refilled.
- Sheets and towels are left on the beds. They will be fogged together with the whole yacht before bagging.
- All rubbish has been removed and disposed of in marina bins next to dock B - do not leave it on the dock.
- The kids life jackets have been left on the yacht.
- All personal possessions have been removed; please check thoroughly.
- Navigation equipment; including all charts and pilot books, has been returned to the chart table, and all cockpit instruments have been covered.
- All hatches are closed.
- The keys have been left in the chart table.
- Your transfer has been arranged with the customer service team.
- The boat should be left in a good seamanlike condition. If this is not the case, there is a possibility of additional cost.

REMEMBER

Return to base by 18.00
Friday.

USEFUL INFORMATION

NON-SAILING ACTIVITIES

Konoba and Peka

You will see the word; “Konoba” on many restaurants; these are traditional restaurants that serve fresh local food. Many Konobas will serve "peka"; a traditional way of cooking meat. Usually lamb, veal, octopus or fish are placed in a pan with potatoes, olive oil and herbs, then covered with a metal bell (the peka) and surrounded by hot embers to cook for 2-4 hours. The result is succulent, tender meat and delicious potatoes. If you wish to try "peka", you will need to preorder and give the restaurant 3-4 hours notice.

Wine Tasting

Croatian Wine making goes back thousands of years. Ask in restaurants about local wines and wine tasting as production is usually done locally on a small scale. Try:

Tomić winery,

Jelsa on Hvar island

Bibich Vineyard,

Plastovo near Skradin

Diving

Croatia is home to some of the most beautiful diving sites in the world, from huge walls abundant with fish and sealife, to sunken wrecks of ships and bombard airplanes, the choice is up to you.

Diving is strictly regulated and prohibited in many areas, so we recommend using a local diving school as all permits will be covered and your instructor will be able to show you all the best spots! Contact them in advance to hire gear which can be delivered directly to your boat before embarkation, and do not forget your diving license!

Pongo Diving Centre in Primošten 00 385 (0)91 6799 022 dcpongo.com

Fishing

Fishing is always a great way to add to one's diet when on-board. Croatia has a great variety of fish, and they are all delicious, especially when just caught. An old Dalmatian proverb says that a fish needs to swim three times: first time in the sea, then in olive oil, and lastly in wine; so make sure you have enough of each to enjoy like a local!

Before setting out on a fishing expedition along Croatian shores, it is important to have a proper license. One can very easily be obtained online upon arrival at: ribarstvo.mps.hr.

Bringing your own fishing gear is also a very good idea, as there isn't any at the base, and the closest shop where fishing equipment can be purchased is either Trogir or Rogoznica town, both 15 minutes drive away.

CURRENCY & CREDIT CARDS

Despite being a member of the EU, the Croatian currency is the Kuna and is the only accepted cash currency in Croatia. There are many ATMs, banks and exchange offices where you will be able to withdraw Kuna. It is a good idea to carry cash, as many places are unable to accept credit card payments. Larger restaurants, marinas and supermarkets are able to process card payments, although American Express and Diners are almost never accepted, so it is always best to ask in advance.

GRATUITY

In Croatia, gratuity is not included in your receipt. It is considered normal to leave a tip based on the satisfaction of the service that was provided to you. That goes mostly for restaurants and other food & beverage- selling facilities, but also for all other services- like dock hands, sailors, skippers or other staff.

BERTHING TIPS

In most marinas and town quays the standard method of berthing is stern-to with lazy lines (mooring lines) also known as med-mooring. The staff on the pontoons will wave/shout/whistle to get your attention and direct you to a berth. Listen to their instructions as they park boats every day and can help you in tricky situations.

HOW TO MED MOOR

- Prepare two stern (back) lines; one on each side. Make sure to attach “outside everything” to the stern cleats with a bowline, so they can be passed directly to marina staff (or your lead crew) without getting tangled.
- Move your dinghy to the bow and securely tie to the pulpit if you are on a monohull; ensuring both cleats remain free for your lazy line.
- Secure fenders to the guard wire, spread evenly on each side of the boat, the forward one should not be more than about 1 metre in front of the shrouds. Ensure the top of each fender is at deck level.

PREPARING YOUR CREW

- Have at least 1 crew member ready to throw the windward stern line to the harbour staff. Always ensure your windward line is given first (i.e. the line that is on the side the wind is blowing from).
- Have a crew member with a boat hook at the stern of the boat ready to take the lazyline from the harbour staff. They will then walk with this, passing it “hand over hand” to the bow of the boat, pull in the slack and fix to the bow cleat. Make sure to pull in the slack from the concrete block, not from the quay and to drop all excess rope back into the water, not onto the deck.

TAKE NOTE

- All of our boats will experience some “prop kick/walk”. This means that as you engage reverse gear, the stern of the boat will kick one way or the other before you start to move backwards and gain steerage.
- Unless the wind is strong it is recommended to berth as slowly as possible, whilst still maintaining control.
- Give yourself plenty of space to get used to handling your boat in astern and take your time.

SUSTAINABILITY

As passionate sailors, we want to look after the beautiful oceans and wildlife. It's all about the little things, which collectively make a big difference. Here's a few tips on how to minimise your footprint when boating:

- Never throw anything into the sea, that includes small items like cigarette butts or fruit peel.
- Use holding tanks in marinas and at anchorages. Empty them when at least two miles from the nearest land.
- Be careful while anchoring so as not to damage the sea bed.
- Do not collect any shells from the beach and respect sealife in general.
- Avoid any accidental spills into the sea when refueling.
- Turn off electricity when not needed.
- When using the A/C make sure the yacht doors are closed.
- Minimise plastic.
- Take short showers.
- Buy local.
- Use eco-friendly and fair-trade products.
- Recycle and reuse.
- Save fuel - cruise on a slower speed or sail as much as possible.

YOUR SAFETY

Please locate your safety card when you get onboard & ensure that all crew read it before leaving the marina. If you cannot find it, then please contact customer service team who can provide a replacement.

We care a lot about your personal safety, so please read more about these topics in the safety card:

- Accidents & Illness
- Be Aware & Safe
- Swimming & Beach Safety
- Alcohol & Drugs

Your safety is our top priority...

Please read and abide by the following safety guidelines to reduce the risk of accidents and injury while on board. We want you and your crew to have a safe and enjoyable vacation. Your skipper (and one other) is responsible for the safety of the crew and will take charge in case of an emergency. These persons must receive a briefing session by our base staff before starting the charter. Their signatures are required on the pre-departure paperwork to confirm this has been adequately received.

General Safety

 We strongly advise all passengers to wear lifejackets while on deck and when moving where the risk of accidents is greater. Children and non-swimmers are also at greater risk.

 Boating under the influence of drink or drugs is dangerous, significantly increases the likelihood of serious accidents and is not permitted by law. Even once you have safely moored, drink in moderation to avoid accidents when getting on & off and moving about the boat.

 If someone falls overboard, throw a life ring first directly at them and be careful of their proximity to the propeller. Cut the engine immediately if in doubt.

Please familiarise yourself with emergency contact details before leaving base.

Swimming

 Swimming is fun, but it can be dangerous. Be sure to follow the below advice and abide by local rules. If in doubt - stay out of the water!

 You should never dive from the cabin roof or handtop of your boat.

 Ensure you are fit and able to swim the water safety (i.e. the swimming ladder is lowered) and that the life ring is accessible, before swimming.

Only strong swimmers should enter the water. If you have a medical condition, you should seek medical advice before swimming. We would recommend you use a personal flotation device when wet.

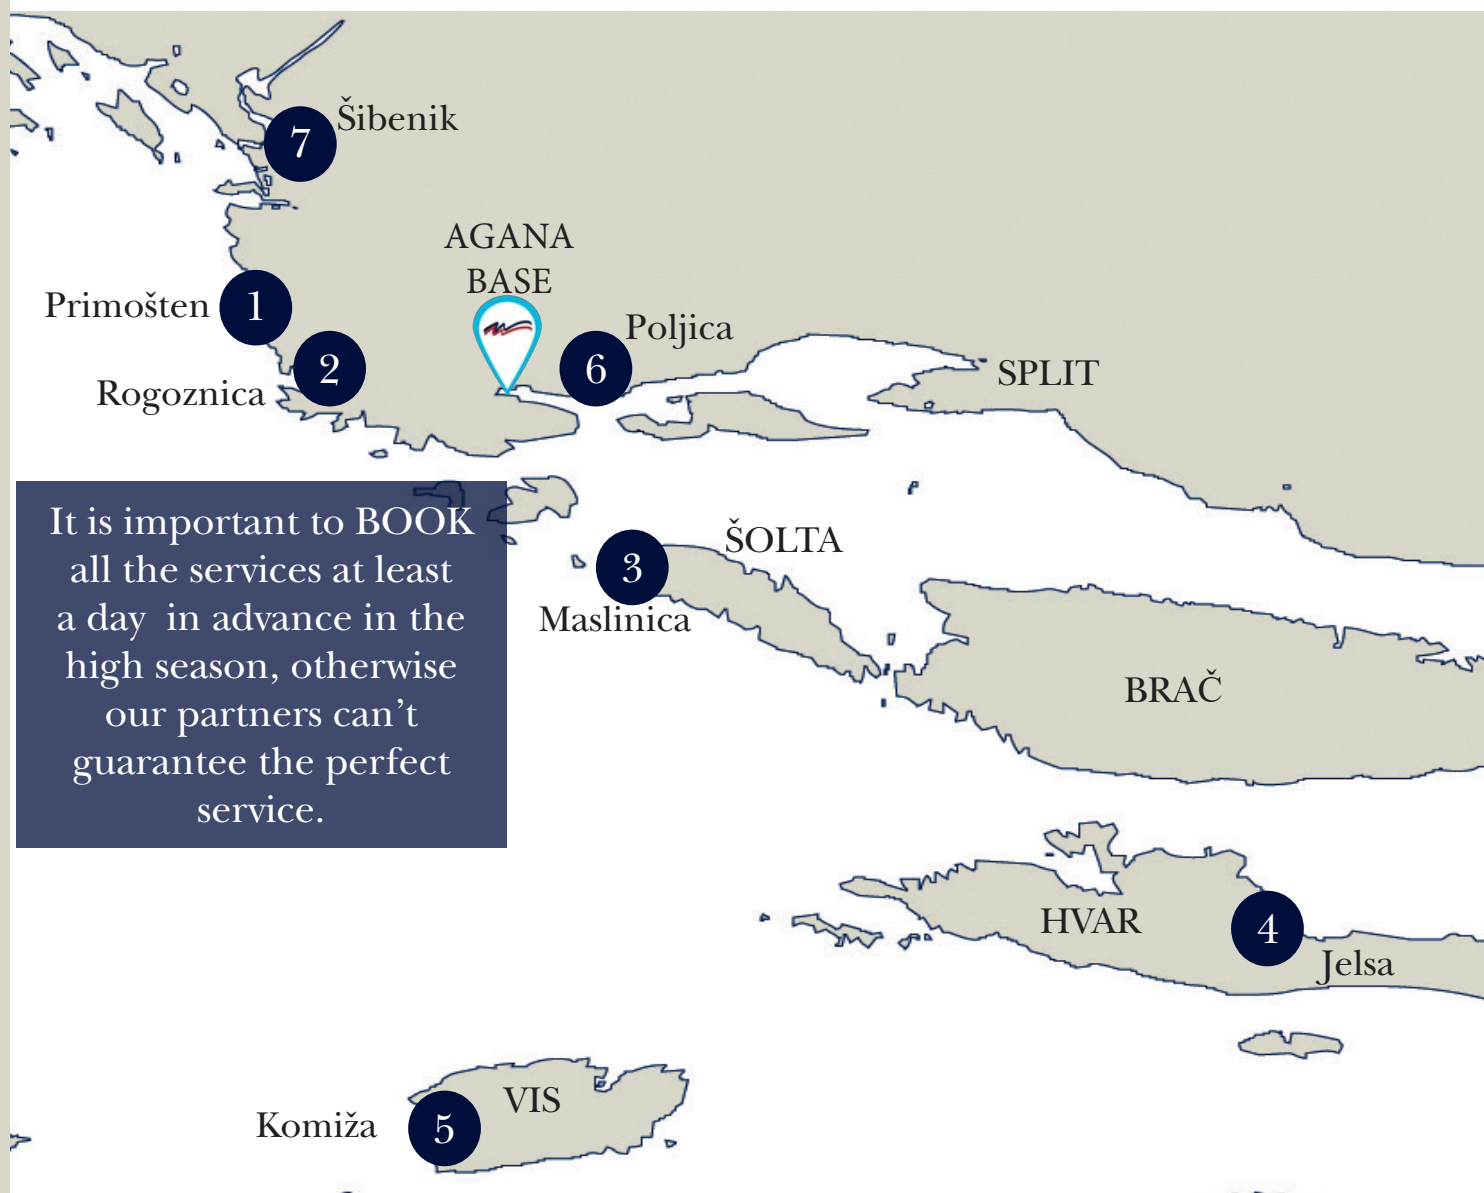

Always ensure that you stay yourself, especially your feet, after swimming and before climbing down the companionway stairs. All surfaces become hazardous when wet.

When swimming, your boat should be safely moored and at least one adult should always stay on board the boat. Your boat's engine should be switched off.

4. TOMIĆ WINERY

Living on the island of Hvar and making top quality wines is, for us, both a challenge and a logical choice. For as early as the 4th c. BC, the Ancient Greeks brought the grape vine to this sunny island and planted it in the fertile plain of the ancient town Pharos. Andro Tomić, the owner and the main oenologist, after 20 years of professional training in France and elsewhere, decided to return to Hvar to produce his own wines. Strongly believing that Hvar, with its authentic varieties, climate and exceptional location of vineyards, can reclaim its long lost reputation in the wine world, Andro follows the 150-year long tradition of family winemaking. In the year 1995, he founded a company named Bastijana, with the primary aim of producing top quality wines and promoting wine culture.

We are especially proud of our wine tasting venue, buried in stone beneath the winery and modelled on ancient Roman dining rooms, Triclinium: carved out of stone, which was the method of construction used in the Diocletian's cellars.

5. JASTOŽERA RESTAURANT

Italian customs officer Balicco came to an idea to grow and sell lobsters in 19th century. He and Croatian builders finalised the project in 1902, and ever since then there have been lobsters for trade in the very same spot. It was unique and famous in the whole Europe, and lobsters were transported to Vienna, Budapest, Paris and similar centres. They were packed in crates with straw so they got to their destinations alive. Konoba Jastožera (lobster pot) was renovated in 2005, but still keeps the lobsters in wooden crates in the sea, so the guests can choose the exact specimen they want. Arriving is also made easy to sailors, thanks to the little dinghy dock just under the restaurant.

POWER CATAMARAN - ONE WEEK ROUTE

SPECIAL ATTENTION AND NO GO ZONES

Although Croatia is a very straightforward region to sail in, meaning there are not a lot of shallow parts or danger areas, we would still like to draw your attention to two sections that need extra caution.

1 KRKNJAŠI

Also known as Blue Lagoon, this place is very popular in summer months, luring with its crystal seas and a great beach bar. The lagoon itself is very shallow in the north, so approach strictly from south-eastern side, and be aware that the bay is exposed to all winds but northwesterlies. Drop anchor and enjoy the water.

2 ŠIBENIK BRIDGE

Sailing upriver from Šibenik town in order to reach the beautiful cascades of Krka National Park is a beautiful and scenic route, taking you beneath two bridges. Don't let the picturesque landscape draw your attention from driving the boat and concentrate on motoring as close to the middle of the bridge as possible. There is enough place for two boats to pass each other, so remain calm with a steady hand on the helm, especially in summer months when the amount of yacht is increased. Also, ignore the bungee jumpers, they need to avoid you, not vice versa.

DESTINATIONS SOUTH OF AGANA

TROGIR

A beautiful historic town set within medieval walls, Trogir was listed as a UNESCO world heritage site in 1997. The architecture is mostly from the time of Venetian rule and is some of the best preserved in Europe. There are many shops, bars and restaurants hidden in the cobbled, maze-like streets and many archaeological attractions to explore. During the summer there is often live music in the squares, enjoy this from one of the many cafes and soak up the Mediterranean culture. There are two modern and well-equipped marinas in the town and it is sometimes possible to dock on the promenade during the low season. The bridge connecting the old town and island Čiovo isn't tall enough for our yachts.

A cultural centre dating back to Medieval times, there are many references to Croatian poet Marko Marulić throughout the town. Today you will find museums, art galleries and many stalls exhibiting the work of local artisans. You can moor on the town quay or in the more sheltered ACI marina.

Walk to the top of the hill for views over the bay and to visit old Byzantine and Roman ruins. There are mooring buoys with additional mooring lines in both forks of the bay, there is also a small town quay, however the water is very shallow so this is only suitable for catamarans and small fishing boats.

PUČIŠĆA - BRAČ ISLAND

This alluring and splendid little traditional town is tucked away on the north eastern side of Brač island, hidden at the end of a deep, long bay. The eastern side of Brač is unfairly overseen sometimes by sailors, in favor of the more recognized islands Vis or Hvar. In spite of that, this area dazzles visitors wanting to be inspired by history and culture, what with its stonemasonry school and tradition, where workshops are refreshing, what by the long promenade dotted with ancient forts.

OMIŠ - MAINLAND

Omiš in Croatia is the symbol of active and adventure tourism, and has a long, sandy, public beach. Nestled between two cliffs at the mouth of river Cetina, it is easily visible from afar. The river and cliffs assure for breathtaking canyoning, rafting, zip-lining, hiking and rock climbing experiences that you can find nowhere else.

Although there are mooring buoys at the mouth of the river, you will probably find yourself anchoring after it, so make sure to arrive early to this historical pirate town to secure a place.

A small, quiet and largely uninhabited island south of Hvar, Šćedro is a place of natural beauty and tranquillity. Due to the mild climate, the island was historically used as pasture land, today the fertile soil is rich with vegetation and a wealth of local plants and herbs. Most notably, the island is known for the Dominican monastery in the village of Mostir; abandoned in the 18th century the ruins still stand today. There are two deep and well-protected bays for mooring; Manastir and Lovišće where restaurant owners have laid mooring buoys.

Out of bounds to foreigners for many years, the island remains charmingly unspoiled by tourism. It is a nature park, so you need a ticket: pp-lastovo.hr. The main settlement on the island is Lastovo town; a maze of narrow streets and old houses. The town is famous for the unusual Lastovo chimneys which were once a status symbol for local families. Zlarin is the only village on the small island situated at the mouth of the Krka river. Historically the island is famous for the harvesting and processing of red coral and there is a small museum and beautiful coral jewellery shop dedicated to this tradition. Cars are banned from the island, giving it a special charm and making it the perfect place to relax. There is a selection of restaurants to enjoy an evening meal, one of our favourites is family restaurant “Ivana” for excellent Dalmatian cuisine. There is usually space to moor on the large town quay, which offers shelter from most winds, but can get very choppy when a north-westerly is blowing. Anchoring isn't free of charge in the bay.
