

HISTORIC GEMS OF JEFFERSONVILLE

Three Museums!

Three Local Gems!

Three Great Tours!

Three Unique Experiences!

CLARK COUNTY
MUSEUM

725 Michigan Ave. • Jeffersonville, IN 47130

502.548.0259 • clarkcountymuseum@gmail.com

The Museum has Clark County stories for kids aged 4 to 104! Our collection ranges from Native American to present and shows how we are important locally, in Indiana and in U.S. history.

Hours: Tuesday-Saturday 10:00am - 4:30pm

www.clarkcountymuseum.org

Clark County Indiana Museum

1101 E. Market St. • Jeffersonville, IN 47130

812.283.3728

info@howardsteamboatmuseum.org

Step into the gilded age of Jeffersonville's past where you can experience a lifestyle a select few knew and the steamboat industry that helped build our fledgling nation. Come home to the Howards!

Hours: Tuesday-Saturday 10 am - 4 pm • Sunday 1 pm - 3pm

www.howardsteamboatmuseum.org

The Howard Steamboat Museum

706 Spring St. • Jeffersonville, IN 47130

812.282.4705 • vfmuseum@gmail.com

The Museum presents the history of firefighting, offers fire safety education and honors firefighters. We have a historically significant collection of firefighting apparatus and equipment in addition to our Safety Education Center.

Hours: Tuesday-Saturday 10 am - 4 pm

www.vintagefiremuseum.org

Vintage Fire Museum

Visit all 3 Historic Gems of Jeffersonville, have your "Passport" stamped at each location and receive a prize when you return your completed passport to any location! Passports are available at all three Gem locations.

