Dear Friends,

The holiday season is upon us, my favorite time of the year. In these days of pandemic and social distancing, we are all a little concerned about the next steps to take. Thankfully, our local merchants have once again stepped up to make things as easy as possible for you...from pre-made food (including baked goods) to online shopping to curbside pickup, you can still shop local and most importantly, keep SAFE. Be sure to check out our 2020 Holiday Shopping Guide starting on Page 6.

Small businesses are the backbone of our economy, both nationally and locally, and we are very lucky to have so many small businesses that have been around for decades. We profile one of these businesses (one business with three locations) this month. Hill Top Fruit Market in Grantsville, The Farmers Market in Oakland, and The Fruit Bowl in Cumberland have been offering fresh produce and much more for over sixty years. Read the story of the McFarland family and their businesses that have become a Garrett County tradition. Did we mention they have over 900 varieties of CANDY at each location. Definitely a delicious story...read it starting on Page 34.

Our Calendar of Events starts on Page 26 with some holiday events you can enjoy...safely. We have updated Covid-19 information on Page 60 plus all the local information you need at your fingertips.

This December, we wish all of our readers, advertisers and friends a very merry and SAFE Holiday season. See you in 2021!

"Best Italian Food on the Lake"

The Covid-19 pandemic has hit everybody hard, but none more so than small business owners. Small businesses account for half of private sector jobs and small business owners are much more likely to participate in local activities and donate to school fund-raisers and sponsorships. In fact, of every dollar spent locally, 67¢ stays within the community.

Garrett County has seen a variety of new retail establishments this past decade and you can find everything from toys, games, apparel, outdoor equipment and more without leaving the mountaintop. Each of our communities offer several shops with a unique array of goods for you to enjoy.

Schoolhouse Earth, located along Rt. 42, and one of the area's oldest shops, has a variety of items and something for everyone on your gift list. You'll find holiday decor, jewelry, a nice children's section, apparel, soaps and lotions, stationary, linens and more Both Schoolhouse Earth, and its sister store, Gourmet to Go at the Fort in McHenry, has everything you could need to stock your kitchen... and your pantry. They have a large selection of dip and soup mixes as well as marinades, mustards and more...perfect for gift giving or entertaining at home.

Bear Creek Traders, located in Market Square, also has many great gift ideas. This year they are offering ski gloves for just $9.99, cashmere scarves for only $19.99 and Deep Creek Lake Sherpa pullovers for $29.99. Be sure to check out their Holiday Open House December 11 - 13 for even more specials. As always, they offer a full line of Deep Creek Lake souvenirs, gift wrap and greeting cards, toys for all ages, items from Vera Bradley, Life is Good and Willow Tree, shoes from Tervis and candles from Kringle, Swan Creek & Milk Reclamation.

Christmas Chalet, located along Rt 219 across from Uno's, is the area's most complete yearround Christmas Shop. Featuring over 60 themed trees to shop from, you'll find holiday collectibles from Jim Shore and Old World Glass, Dept. 56 Village pieces, toys, puzzles and so much more. Be sure to stop by their Holiday Open House the weekend of December 5 & 6 showcasing some great specials and gift card giveaways. Next door at The Tourist Trap you will find a large selection of unique Deep Creek Lake t-shirts, hats and more plus kids apparel, jewelry, candles, flags and more.

If you are looking for stylish yet affordable women's clothing be sure to stop at Cashmere Clothing at the Fort in McHenry. You'll find attire for work, play, relaxing and more as well as jewelry and other fun accessories. With sizes ranging from small to 3x, there is something for every woman on your list.

Wine and spirits also make useful gifts and you can find great savings at McHenry Beverage Shoppe this month. They have a wonderful selection of wines from all around the world as well as your favorite liquors. You can enjoy 10% off beer, liquor and cigars every Wednesday in addition to 15% off wine.

Don't forget, Zip'eez Convenience Store also has a large selection of wine and spirits and will deliver to your doorstep. You may also want to check out Fireside Wine Shoppe, located on Glendale Road. The shop is open only by appointment but once inside you will find a finely curated selection of wines to grace your holiday table.

If you are looking for activities for the kids this holiday season, stop by Deep Creek Pottery. They will be open Saturdays from 11 - 4 or by appointment. They have new pottery for sale, take and make mosaic kits and some great Christmas gifts all packaged perfectly for giving.

An Ornament kit from Deep Creek Pottery will help keep the kids entertained this season.

The gift of food is always appreciated. If you or somebody on your list is tired of cooking, consider a gift card for one of our local restaurants. This year UNO is offering $60 gift cards for $50. They will also give a voucher for a free pizza with every $40 Ultimate Gift Card Purchase (good for Arrowhead, DC Uno, Honi-Honi and Garrett 8 Cinemas). These gift cards will be available for purchase at all four of those locations until December 31, 2020.

The folks at MoonShadow want you and your family to EAT REAL FOOD so they are inviting you to give the gift of delicious scratch made foods with their emailable gift cards. Their entire menu is available for carry-out and can be found online.

For a more meaningful gift, you can find unique items and antiques and Blue Moon Antiques in Grantsville. They are offering a 20% discount on all merchandise through December 31st. From antique ornaments to collectibles, a gift from here will be unlike any other.

The gift shop at Penn Alps is a not to be missed stop in your holiday shopping. They feature handmade items from area artisans including those housed in nearby Spruce Forest Artisan Village. Pottery, stained glass, handmade soaps, beautifully crafted quilts...this is a shoppers paradise.

While in Grantsville, stop by HIII Top Fruit Market and purchase the ingredients to make your very own customized gift basket (or visit The Farmers Market in Oakland). With 900 varieties of candies, local jellies, apple butter, snack mixes, fresh produce and more...you can satisfy anyone on your list. (Read more about this longtime local business in our Business Spotlight starting on page 34).

Downtown Oakland is celebrating the season as well with their Annual "A Great Small Town Christmas" promotion, although it looks a bit different this year. Instead of Soup and Santa, you can find Santa on the Front Page Stage each Saturday from 11 am to 2 pm, where you can drive by and wave. Their Post an Elfie promotion will take place from Dec. 5 - 19. To participate, post a selfie onto Facebook of you and an item purchased at a participating Oakland shop. It helps promote the community and gives you a chance to win some awesome prizes.

The shops in Oakland are wearing their Christmas finery and you will find so many unique items there. The newest shop, Gean&Olive is so excited for their first holiday season in down-town Oakland. You can email them to set up a virtual "safe" personal shopping experience and they can curate the perfect gift box for the holidays for your personal and corporate gifts. They have a wide selection of artisan products for foodies, fashionistas and a wonderful selection of local made products mainly by women entrepreneurs. Email sales@geanandolive.com for information.

Other specialty shops in downtown Oakland include the Book Mark'et & Antique Mezzanine featuring all the current best sellers for all age groups and genres. Their children's section is a joy and you can find wonderful toys and books for every age reader in your family. They also feature a good selection of books for Young Adult Readers and you're sure to find something for your bookshelf as well.

Favorite Things Gift Shop, located on the corner of Alder and Third Street has a wonderful selection of clothing and gifts for the babies and toddlers in your life. You will find Thomas Kinkade Limited & Open Edition artwork, Zac Kinkade artwork, Irish gifts, as well as Wild Wings art and decor.

Nobody decorates for Christmas like the Painted Cupboard. This year they have outdone themselves with their holiday displays of wooden trees, fun snowmen and flameless candles. You will find something for every corner of your home as well as wonderful smelling candles, potpourri and wonderful dips. Next door at The Chic Shack, there is a wonderful selection of ladies accessories including the latest designs in purses, jewelry, sweaters and scarves.

The gift of art never goes out of style. With the cancellation of most festivals in 2020, our local artists have suffered with decreased sales as well. You can view the work of many of our local artists at The Gallery Shop in downtown Oakland now open Thursday – Saturday from 10 am to 5 pm. You can also shop their artwork online at SEYMOURart.org.

Of course, baked goods are a special treat we all look forward to during the holidays. Too tired to bake? Call Annie's Country Kitchen for all your holiday baked goods. They have cookie trays available, cash and carry and special orders as well as pies, cakes and more just like Grandma used to make. Last day to order is December 20th!

The Rolling Pin in Accident, Traders Coffee Shop and Shop 'n Save at the lake also offer a wide variety of baked goods sure to please any sweet tooth. Special orders are always welcome but pre-ordering is suggested.

Other popular gifts are the holiday gift tins from Copper Kettle Popcorn Factory. You can visit their shop at the lake (next to Lakeside Creamery) or shop online at www.copperkettlepopcornfactory.com.

One thing we've been short on this year is experiences but you can always think ahead to 2021. Consider a gift certificate to Himalayan Salt Cave and Spa. You and your friends and family can make plans to enjoy the area's only true salt cave after a wonderful massage by one of their technicians. They also have a large selection of essential oils available for sale.

In Friendsville, Appalachian Valley is well-known for their pure, high quality essential oils. They offer oils for blends and for fragrance, as well as carrier oils, even an all natural insect repellant. They also offer CBD oils made on site and quality controlled in Friendsville. Their shop is open every Saturday but you can also go online to shop at www.goaho.com. They offer free shipping for orders over $35.

One of the county's newest businesses is Meadow Mountain Farm, which specializes in growing the hemp also used in CBD products. You can find several of their latest developments on their website at meadowmountainhemp.farm where you can purchase premium CBD oils handcrafted to help with exercise recovery, stress control and sleep support. Mention The Lake-Front Magazine to receive 25% off your first purchase!

For more information on these businesses, refer to our Shopping Guide beginning on Page 72 and our Directory of Services on Page 78. Most shops offer online ordering and curbside pickup so you can shop from the comfort and safety of your own home. This year, more than ever, small business needs you to SHOP LOCAL!

You know, when you think about it, exactly what could you ever do with "ten Lords a-leaping" or "Eight Maids a-milking". I guess if you had a farm and had some cows you could use some help from the maids, but the thought of ten Lords leaping all over the place gets to me. What will they leap over, who's going to feed them, how often do they need new shoes, how old are they, can I rent them out for parties, etc.

Hill Top Fruit Market The Fruit Bowl & Farmer's Market -- Home of Candyland

NIAFKEL -- FIOITIE OF CATOLYIATIO Offering Fresh Produce and Unique Treats for Over 60 Years

If there is one lesson we have learned from these past months of living with the pandemic, it's the value of small businesses in our community and the importance of shopping locally. If you are looking for a gift that is unique, meaningful, AND delicious, Hill Top Fruit Market and its sister stores in Oakland (Farmer's Market) and Cumberland (The Fruit Bowl) should be your first stop. Fresh fruit, local delicacies and unique sweets make an ideal gift and you can find all of this and more at these one of a kind stores.

Hill Top Fruit Market in Grantsville has been a popular shopping destination for locals and visitors to Garrett County since 1958, starting as a simple roadside produce stand opened by Chester and Shirley McFarland with the help of their ten children. Over time, it has grown into a full-time operation consisting of three stores and 45 employees.

The small produce stand, with its commitment to quality product and customer service, soon turned into a year-round operation with the second store in Oakland being opened in 1961 and the third in Cumberland in 1970. All three stores are still operated by the McFarland family and offer the same commitment to freshness and quality as their parents did all those years ago.

Of course, one of the big draws for all three locations is Candyland, which was added to the stores in 1966. Candyland offers over 900 varieties of candy, all available for purchase in bulk, so customers can pick and choose which candy, and how many pieces of each, they want. It's priced by the pound so you can mix and match as much as you like.

"We used to drive to Pittsburgh to different wholesalers to offer this wide variety of candy for our customers," said Joyce Kamp, one of current owners. "Now it's delivered to us from all over the world." Candy lovers will find popular brands from large candy producers like Hershey and Mars but as you look among the bins, you'll find candies from all over the world, and some you might recognize from your childhood.

You'll find everything you need to make homemade candies, cookies and more

They also feature a large variety of novelty candies -- which are some of their biggest sellers and perfect as stocking stuffers. "We can't keep them stocked fast enough," says Joyce.

According to Linda Carr, another McFarland sibling, sugar-free items are one of their biggest sellers. They offer an entire section of sugar free candies, cookies, and more – including several items you just won't find anywhere else. These are perfect gifts for friends and family watching their sugar intake.

More than just produce and candy, they carry many food items as well. In addition to everyday items like milk and eggs, you'll find a variety of jarred goods, packaged dips and soups, plus local favorites like maple syrup and apple butter.

The store's bulk section has a variety of items. They offer everything from buckwheat flour to cornmeal and have a wonderful offering of nuts, both in and out of the shell including almonds, pistachios, peanuts, walnuts, pecans, macadamia nuts, even hard to find pine nuts. These are a perfect for baking or to keep on hand as a healthy treat.

Looking for something different? Try one of their unique snacks. You can buy bags of seeds and sesame sticks in different flavorings...a great and healthy way to try something new.

Cheese is always a popular treat and Hilltop has over forty varieties for you to try. You'll find so many different specialty cheeses here, everything from fresh mozzarella to cheddars flavored with onions, or Horseradish, as well as flavored cheese curds.

As far as produce, Hill Top always offers a variety of salad fixings including a variety of lettuces, root vegetables and pantry staples like potatoes, onions and garlic. They have a variety of tomatoes and always buy locally when it is available. For fall they have an abundance of different varieties of apples and you'll always find delicious oranges, pears and more to keep the winter blues at bay. Boxed citrus and apples are also available.

Of course, no salad is complete without dressing and they always have a nice variety of delicious dressings as well as dips, flavored butters and delicious maple cream. Seasonal treats include fresh cranberries, apple cider, caramel dips, yams and more. You'll also find rice noodles, specialty pastas and batter mixes and starters including a nice selection of Amish goods.

You'll also find a huge variety of fresh spices including many you will need for your holiday dinner including ginger, cinnamon sticks and more. They also have gravy mixes, hot chocolate and cappuccino mixes and soup bases for a quick and tasty snack. Other treats include pickled asparagus, dried fruit, banana chips and so much more.

A fruit basket from Hill Top makes the perfect gift any time of year but especially during the holiday season. This year, as we rethink the way we live, we also may be rethinking the types of gifts we want to give...looking for ones that are not only meaningful, but also useful. "A customized basket from Hill Top is not only a gift of good taste, but also a gift that tastes good!" says Joyce.

Stuck inside the house and looking for new activities to share with your children...or to keep yourself entertained? Hill Top has everything you need for an old-fashioned Christmas where you can make your own delicious treats to enjoy at home or to give as gifts.

You'll find a variety of dried fruits, plus flavorings, decorating sugars and sprinkles, cookie cutters, candy molds and a large variety of melting chocolates in many colors and flavors. They have the largest supply of hard-tack flavoring oils in the area and are happy to supply bulk items to churches and organizations looking to make candy fund-raising ideas.

They also have color pastes, candy writers, edible glitter plus packaging for all of it. If you love baking, they always have a nice array of cookie cutters, melting chocolate in various flavors as well as chocolate and peanut butter chips.

The McFarland family has always appreciated their customers whom they know is the backbone of their business. You may not be able to find every item on your grocery list in their store, but you'll find its worth the effort to make an extra stop here, especially knowing that the McFarlands support many locally made and grown items. When the local grocery store closed in Grantsville, Hill Top started to offer more grocery items for the convenience of their shoppers.

They receive deliveries daily (except Sunday) so you know all their produce is fresh. They also offer convenient hours, opening daily at 8 AM and each store is open every day of the year except Thanksgiving, Christmas Day, New Year's Day and Easter Sunday.

Hill Top Fruit Market is located at 12579 National Pike (Rt. 40) in Grantsville (open 8am to 8 pm daily), The Farmers Market is located at 12679 Garrett Highway (Rt. 219) in Oakland (open 8 am to 7 pm daily), and The Fruit Bowl is located at 10325 National Hwy (Rt. 40) in Cumberland (open 8 am to 7 pm daily). You can like their Facebook page for hours, up to date information on specials and more.

Make it an old-fashioned Christmas. This holiday season, enjoy and give the gift of good taste.

The Supportive Arm of the Garrett County Arts Council Reaches Far & Wide (with your support!)

By Mary McEwen of The Garrett County Arts Council

The Garrett County Arts Council's annual membership drive is underway this month, as announced by Kendall Ludwig, president of the GCAC Board of Directors, and Kathy Beachler, executive director of the nonprofit organization. The council has been in operation for 44 years, with the vision of a vibrant and sustainable arts community for artists, their audiences, and the community at large. The GCAC Board of Directors and staff are committed to aiding, encouraging, advising, and coordinating activities dedicated to the promotion of cultural arts in Garrett County, and to integrate such activities into the life of the community.

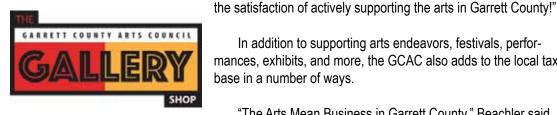

An agency of the Maryland State Arts Council, the GCAC is funded in part by state and local government funding, but relies on community membership support for much of its success. Membership affords the contributor several benefits, including a discount at The Gallery Shop in Oakland, operated by the arts council staff and supporting more than 150 area artists. Each member is formally invited to attend the annual Membership Reception and Meeting and enjoys voting privileges. They are the first to know each vear's Friend of the Arts Award recipient, announced at the annual meeting. Invitations are also sent to all members for The Gallery Shop artist receptions and other events, and informational emails are sent out with news and updates. The GCAC offers special member events, such as guided tours to art venues or to various performances.

"And most importantly," executive director Beachler said, "becoming a member gives each donor

In addition to supporting arts endeavors, festivals, performances, exhibits, and more, the GCAC also adds to the local tax base in a number of ways.

"The Arts Mean Business in Garrett County," Beachler said.

"For every $1 spent in arts operating budgets in the state of Maryland, $4.16 is generated. That's an impressive return on investment."

In fact, in the state of Maryland in 2018 as reported by the Department of Commerce, there were 16.922 full-time equivalent jobs generated by arts organizations. Each year, $8.9 million people attend arts events in the state, and $462 million is spent by arts audiences in a single year. The state and local tax revenue was listed in 2018 at $60 million, and direct spending into the economy that year by arts organizations was $944 million. That translates into a $1.3 billion total annual impact of the arts in Maryland.

A membership to the Garrett County Arts Council is $25 per year. With this support from the community, the GCAC provides a wide range of programming and arts support, and works toward obtaining additional funding at both the county and state levels. The organization takes an active role with organizations such as Maryland Citizens for the Arts at events like the annual Arts Day presented to legislators in Annapolis, and the staff works in collaboration with the Maryland State Arts Council's leadership.

Locally, the council operates the annual Artist Studio Tours to celebrate and support the many Garrett County artists who operate their own home studios. Arts in Education programming is a high priority of the organization, which strives to offer multi-cultural programs for county schools students, sponsorship of annual Student Arts Fair, Achievement in Art Awards for area graduating seniors, periodic student visual art exhibits, sponsorship of high school literary journals, and more. The literary journal Ginseng is produced biannually by the council, with works written by local authors and juried for admission into the collection.

Each year the GCAC offers Community Art Development Grants to local non-profits, educational entities, and government agencies that present arts related programs and activities. The funding arm reaches wide and far in the county, as the GCAC traditionally supports such organizations as the Garrett Lakes Arts Festival, Spruce Forest Artisan Village, the Celtic Festival, the Garrett Choral Society, the Garrett Community Concert Band, Our Town Theatre, and many more.

Collaborations are built between the GCAC and many local programs as well, such as Art in the Park at Deep Creek Lake State Park and Blooming Art, a floral and visual art exhibit with the Mountain Laurel Garden Club. Workshops and demonstrations are scheduled and presented throughout the year by the GCAC in several areas of the county.

A vital collaboration of the GCAC is with the towns of Oakland and Grantsville, where Arts & Entertainment Districts have been established. The towns and the GCAC work together to support, promote, and celebrate the artists and artistry of these two distinct Garrett County communities. Together the arts council and the town councils help to fund a coordinator position and activities of each A&E District.

The GCAC maintains an active website located at garrettarts.org. On this site users can find events listings, announcements, grant information, and more. The staff maintains active social media accounts for the organization on Facebook and Instagram.

The newest endeavor by the council and the staff is an online marketplace, built chiefly to offset the losses to artists in the pandemic. SEYMOUR: An Art Experience began as an in-person marketplace held at the Simon Pearce glass facility. To abide by best safe practices while also supporting its member artists, the GCAC staff opted out of the actual market and jumped onto the development of a virtual option, a fully accessible online market. It can be found at SEYMOURart.org. This inaugural online effort has proved to be quite successful, helping to further the mission of the GCAC to support and promote local artists, even in the time of quarantine and a national shut-down. This holiday season, SEYMOURart.org is welcoming new artists to the online marketplace.

The Gallery Shop is a vibrant and active GCAC program. Located in downtown Oakland's A&E District, the retail storefront provides a venue for local visual artists and writers to show and sell their 44 The Lake-Front Magazine | December 2020 creations. Staff members maintain the shop, keep up the inventory, communicate with artists, advertise artist work in print, radio and social media, and provide a professionally run gallery that both supports its artists and provides the community with an impressive collection of expertly created art, to both view and to purchase.

One exciting new program in response to the COVID-19 pandemic is $MART ART: Shared Workspace, an ADA-accessible shared community workspace coming soon to Oakland, equipped with a variety of digital and traditional tools and services that will assist artists and community members to flourish in the global digital based economy. $MART ART Supplies (watercolor paints, recorders, theatre mask plaster, etc.) are being distributed to local students so they have art materials to assist them while learning from home.

"We think membership in the Garrett County Arts Council is a fantastic value," Ludwig said. "Already a member? Thank you! Please now renew your membership for 202I. Not a member yet? Please join! We need your continued financial support, and we need your voice, your ideas, your passion, your participation, your time and your love of the arts."

Persons may join by going online to www.garrettarts.org and clicking on "Become a Member" found on the bottom left of the home page. Persons may email info@garrettarts.org to join, visit The Gallery Shop at 108 S. Second Street in Oakland, or call the office at 301-334-6580.

U.S. News & World Report Names Garrett Regional Medical Center a 2020-21 Best Nursing Home

Garrett Regional Medical Center is among the 21% of U.S. skilled nursing facilities recognized as a Best Nursing Home for 2020-21 by U.S. News & World Report.

"We are honored that the excellent care provided by our Subacute Unit has once again been recognized with this distinguished award," said Kendra Thayer, Senior Vice President of Patient Services. "This recognition is due to our incredible staff, who strive every day to treat our patients like family. They are a dedicated and compassionate team who always go above and beyond to help our patients through their recovery."

The home earned Best Nursing Homes status by achieving a rating of "High Performing," the highest possible rating, for Short-Term Rehabilitation. U.S. News gives the designation of Best Nursing Home only to those homes that satisfy U.S. News's assessment of the appropriate use of key services and consistent performance in quality measures.

Now in its 11th year, the U.S. News Best Nursing Homes ratings and profiles offer comprehensive information about care, safety, health inspections, staffing and more for nearly all of the nation's 15,000-plus nursing homes. The Best Nursing Homes rating reflects U.S. News' exclusive analysis of publicly available data using a methodology that evaluates factors determined to most greatly impact patient and resident care, safety, and outcomes. This year, to accompany the new ratings, nursing home profile pages were updated to include a patient safety summary that reflects COVID-19 data alongside other measurements of safety and related advice on choosing a home or facility amidst the pandemic.

"U.S. News strives to provide access to information that allows consumers to make educated decisions on all types of care," said Ben Harder, managing editor and chief of health analysis at U.S. News. "Updating the profiles to include a patient safety summary that highlights COVID-19 data paired with other measures of care arms families, caregivers and patients with the information needed to make a decision that keeps safety at the highest priority."

The Best Nursing Home finder features ratings on both long-term and short-term care. The short-term rating incorporates measures of quality including consistency of registered nurse staffing, use of antipsychotic drugs, and success in preventing falls.

Garrett Regional Medical Center's Subacute Care Department is a ten-bed unit designed for patients who may fall between nursing home care and hospital care and serves between 350 to 400 patients annually. Subacute patients require complex care or rehabilitation. Some patients might be recovering from a stroke, surgery, cardiorespiratory conditions, or wound care. The unit offers a home-like atmosphere with its own dining area, activity room and laundry facility to provide patients with the care and education needed to function when they return home.

Garrett Choral Society is Giving the Gift of Song

Garrett Choral Society is inviting you to enjoy their Christmas music this holiday season. If enjoying the Garrett Choral Society annual holiday concert is one of your favorite activities of the season, you can listen to their Christmas music online this year. They have selected highlights from their 2017 & 2018 Christmas concerts and have created a video recording on their YouTube channel called "A Choral Society Christmas."

"Since we've been unable to sing together for the last 9 months, we wanted to find a way to share some of the holiday spirit with you," says Lindy Moebs, choir member. Beginning Tuesday, December 8th this one-hour concert will be available to all. "When our directors Sean & Debbi Beachy made these recordings, no one could have imagined that we would have to substitute them for live music. We're so grateful that we can now offer this music to you," said Lindy.

There are two ways to listen. Go to Facebook.com/GarrettChoralSociety OR go to YouTube.com then Search for "Garrett Choral Society" and Select "A Choral Society Christmas".

As with all non-profit organizations, fund-raising for the choral society has been non-existent in 2020. Choral Society expenses are on-going even without any live performances during the 2020 year.

If you want to support Community Music, the Garrett Choral Society is incorporated as a non-profit and will gratefully accept financial donations. The mailing address is Garrett Choral Society, PO Box 53, Oakland, MD 21550. Says Lindy, "We hope and pray that we can sing for you in person next year. Happy Holidays to All and Keep a Song in your Heart!"
