MEETING SAFELY

ISSUE #1

Welcome Back

At Active Hospitality, we have been busy supporting the NHS and key workers during the lockdown period. Across our portfolio of five properties our teams have been working to implement smart working practices, so that you can come and enjoy our properties with the confidence that every measure has been considered and taken care of

Our venues will adopt safety protocols based on Government guidelines and in-depth knowledge of our products and clients

Please speak to our individual properties directly for more information for your specific meeting and event requirements
