

Tones And I - Ur So FuCkInG cOoL Lyrics

Everybody's talkin' 'bout sex
Everybody's talkin' 'bout ex
Like no one really wants to find a genuine connect
Before they even look at you, they move onto the next
And I know then they say

"Don't you worry," I'm the one
Then the very next day, they say they're done
And I don't wanna listen to the shit you spun
No, I don't want to listen to the shit you spun

Walk into a party, feelin' out of place
Everyone's too cool, everyone's too fake
I try to start a conversation but I can't seem to relate
Yo, I'm 'bout to get an Uber

'Cause you're so fucking cool
You're just way too fucking cool

And I don't really care if you're king
And I don't really care for gold things
You'll be pointing at some girls and saying, "Yeah, we had a fling"
Ha, you're not fooling me, you're just a puppet on a string
Just a puppet on a string, oh

And they say, "Don't you worry," I'm the one
Then the very next day, they say they're done
And I don't wanna listen to the shit you spun
No, I don't want to listen to the shit you spun

Walk into a party, feelin' out of place
Everyone's too cool, everyone's too fake
I try to start a conversation but I can't seem to relate

'Cause you're so fucking cool

You're just way too fucking cool
'Cause you're so fucking cool
Walk into a party, feelin' out of place
Everyone's too cool
You're just way too fucking cool
Walk into a party, feelin' out of place
'Cause you're so fucking cool

Where have all my friends gone?
I seem to have lost them on my way
And now, their spots are filled with Ken dolls
They tell me that I have got to stay

'Cause you're so fucking cool
You're just way too fucking cool
'Cause you're so fucking cool
Walk into a party, feelin' out of place
Everyone's too cool
You're just way too fucking cool
Walk into a party, feelin' out of place
'Cause you're so fucking cool
