Editor's Note

Dear Friends,

As summer heats up, there are scores of activities happening throughout the county. From crafts to farm visits and camps, along with live entertainment, there is something for everyone. Of course, there's a lot to be said for doing nothing too, and summer is the perfect time to lie back, enjoy the sun and read a good book.

If it's activity you like, be sure to check out our feature on Swallow Falls, one of the most beautiful parks in the state, beginning on page 6. We also have an updated schedule for Victorian Chautauqua, held July 9 & 10 in Mt. Lake Park. The article begins on page 68. The area's newest event, a fund-raiser for The Dove Center featuring Dragon Boats is featured on page 62.

For our full calendar of events, go to page 20; and for a line-up of some of the live entertainment happening in the area, go to page 106. Fun abounds this summer.

Needing a little Christmas this warm July? Be sure to check out our Business Spotlight on Christmas Chalet and its sister store The Tourist Trap, beginning on page 44.

Whatever your pleasure this July, enjoy!

Swallow Falls State Park

*Story by Collen DuBose
Photography by Garrett County Chamber of Commerce: Sarah Duck*

Nestled in the heart of Garrett County on the west bank of the Youghiogheny River is a real gem for locals and tourists alike. From the frozen falls overflowing with ice circles in our seemingly eternal winters to the roaring falls and rock strewn swimming spots during the summer months, Swallow Falls State Park is a must see destination in Garrett County. The entrance fee for the park is $3 for Maryland residents, $5 for out-of-state visitors, and children in a car seat are free. The park is open from 8 AM until dark. If you would like to plug the address of this natural wonder into your phone to guide you, the actual street address of the park is 2470 Maple Glade Road, Oakland MD 21550

Unfortunately, pets are not permitted in the day use area or on the Canyon Trail between the Saturday before Memorial Day and Labor Day. However after Labor Day to the Friday before Memorial Day weekend you can bring your furry friends along for the hike. Pets are allowed in the campground and on trails that connect with the state forest and must remain on a leash and under control at all times.

There are some Hemlock trees within the park that are older than when Ben Franklin and Thomas Jefferson were running around the East Coast. It's awe inspiring, but that scale of time really puts it in perspective. These trees pre-date the United States itself. One noticeable thing about the forest is that trees are allowed to rot and fall all over the park without being cleaned up. I spoke to a seasonal park employee named Tiara who explained that in order to protect the 300-year-old hemlock trees and their ecosystem, Swallow Falls is designated a Sensitive Management Area, which means trees are allowed to fall or burn as nature intended; only trees blocking trail access are cleared.

These trails offer a variety of different paths through the 257-acre State Park but the most popular hike is down to the waterfalls. Once you start down the trail, you can hear the roaring water! The trail continues for about 1.25 miles and has various terrain including level pathways, stairs, and some rocks. There are three waterfalls located along the trail, each varying in size. The biggest, Muddy Creek Falls, is a whooping 53-foot-drop and one of the highest natural waterfalls on the east coast. Continuing on Canyon Loop Trail from Muddy Creek Falls, through to Swallow Trails, and to Swallow Falls you can continue strolling casually along the Youghiogheny River. If it's your first time at the falls and you are with family, you should know that the hike is no more than an hour long.

If you hike or swim one thing is for certain - Biodiversity is on full display at Swallow Falls. According to allaboutbirds.org, Cliff Swallows are the namesake of the Park, "Often swarm around bridges and overpasses and in summer, offering passers-by a chance to admire avian architecture and family life at once. Clusters of their intricate mud nests cling to vertical walls...and (the Swallows) are nearly always found in large groups, whether they're chasing insects high above the ground, preening on perches, or dipping into a river for a bath." It's not hard to see why the falls would be named after these Swallows that used to nest in the upper part of Swallow Falls among the rocks.

Muddy Creek Falls is the most popular attraction

Speaking of wildlife, there has been a noticeable uptick in the mentions of Black Bears on social media recently. So, seeing one on your trip to Swallow Falls is not the craziest idea. If you do happen upon one, be sure to remember not to panic. According to the Department of Natural Resources “Living with Black Bears” page, “They will associate people with food and may become a persistent problem for you and your neighbors. It is illegal to feed bears in Maryland. If you encounter a bear, remain calm. DON’T PANIC. Leave the area.”

If you enjoy your visit to Swallow Falls, why not stay for awhile? There are sixty-five campsites with a fire ring, picnic table, and lantern post located near modern bath houses with hot and cold water. There are actually three sites that are full electric, water and sewer if you’re not in the mood to “rough-it.” There are even three camper cabins which include electric heat, microwave, small folding table and chairs, mini fridge, one double bed, and a bunk bed. Reservations are required for all three camper cabins from the first weekend in April until the first weekend in December. According to the website for the park, camping reservations are strongly recommended Memorial Day weekend through Labor Day by calling 1-888-432-2267 or online at parkreservations.maryland.gov.

Skip Around Town's UNSUNG HEROES

Hospice of Garrett County

By Michael R. Fratz & Collen DuBose

This month's unsung hero focuses on a difficult and uncomfortable yet inevitable reality. The Hospice of Garrett County employees, and all they do to provide care for those of us on the way out of this life, are our Unsung Heroes for July 2022.

The concept of providing specialized care for dying patients began in England when a physician named Dame Cicely Saunders created the first modern hospice there in 1967. Four years prior, in 1963, Saunders introduced the idea to the United States in a lecture at Yale University. Following this introductory lecture, the concept began taking root within the U.S. healthcare system when physician Dr. Elisabeth Kubler-Ross interviewed 500 dying patients for a book she published in 1969 called "On Death and Dying." In the bestselling book, she made a plea for home care as opposed to treatment in an institutional setting. She argued that patients should have the ability to participate in that decision-making. The result was what we know as Hospice today.

longer, and the service is not just for elderly patients. Children receive hospice care, as do patients with any end-stage chronic illness, as well as those with progressive degenerative diseases like Alzheimer's disease, Parkinson's disease, ALS, and more. Hospice's goal is to make the patient as comfortable as possible.

Hospice care is a specific type of healthcare regulated by Medicare for patients who have six months or less to live. However, services don't automatically end after six months. Some people in hospice care live much

Locally, Hospice of Garrett County provides in-home nursing care, certified nursing assistants, social workers, volunteer caregivers, dietary counseling, medical supplies, equipment, medications, and short-term, or respite care, as needed, at no cost to the patient or family.

The following is a brief interview with Donna Jo Brenneman, the Executive Director of Hospice Garrett County LLC, in the post since 2014.

What is the number one takeaway from your personal experience with Hospice?

Sometimes medical facilities wait too long to refer a terminally ill patient to our services. We hear time after time: Why did we wait so long to get your services!

What do you and the other Hospice employees do in Garrett County and beyond? Once a patient gets the diagnosis of 6 months or less to live, we are able to go in and provide our services and supplies at NO cost to the patient or family, regardless of insurance status. This includes medicines, wound care supplies, and products like Ensure, Depends, etc.

What are some of the biggest issues Hospice faces? Staffing is always an issue because we never know how many patients we will be serving at any given time. We serve the entire County and have to have Nurses and CNAs to provide adequate service at all times.

Who are the other people managing the day-to-day of the organization? What do they do?

We have Dr. Dan Miller as our Medical Director; Grace Bolyard, Clinical Director; Amy Welch, Financial Administrator; Ashley Colmer as our Volunteer Director and HR, Andrea Davis as the Office Manager and Bereavement Director. And, of course, all of our nurses and aides who work tirelessly to help our patients.

Can anyone volunteer? How do you volunteer? Volunteers are always welcome! We have administrative volunteers that assist with mailings etc., and then we have Patient Care Volunteers that go out in the homes to sit with patients, read, play music, etc. to give caregivers some respite and provide additional resources for the patients. Anyone can check our website for information or call the office to discuss all the opportunities! <https://hospiceofgc.org/> and (301) 334-5151

What further info do you wish the public knew about Hospice? We just had our largest fundraiser of the year -our Walk, where we had a Celebration of Life for the patients we served from April 2021 to May 2022, and everyone had the opportunity to release a butterfly in memory of a loved one. Please visit our website for this and other events and fundraising opportunities.

This community and so many others in our society benefit greatly from the courage, compassion, and strength of those who dedicate their time and careers to helping others cope with the realities of end-of-life-care. Let us all do what we can to support this organization and others that do this work everyday, often in the shadows, with little praise.

On behalf of our entire community, Thank you, Hospice of Garrett County, for the important, compassionate, and challenging work you do for people during their most painful and vulnerable and as they approach life's end.

July 2022

NOTICE: As of press time, this list (to the best of our knowledge) was accurate but the situation remains ever changing so please check with the contact listed before venturing out. Thank you.

THROUGH JULY 11

Get Your Bloom On -- Deep Creek Lavender Farm. Pick a bundle of fresh lavender to take home while our fields are in peak color. We will have lavender lemonade and lavender ice cream from Lakeside Creamery (while supplies last), or bring your own lunch here to enjoy a picnic here at the farm. Come feed the chickens, gobble with the turkeys, and sneak a peek at the baby chicks. Open 10 - 5 daily. www.deepcreeklavenderfarm.com.

FRIDAY, JULY 1

Fresh Lavender Wreath

Making Class -- Deep Creek Lavender Farm, 7 - 9 PM. Join us as we create beautiful, fresh lavender wreaths. Wreaths finish out 12 - 14 inches and smell amazing! The cost is $40 per wreath. Lavender lemonade and shortbread will be served, and the farm shop will be open for private shopping after the class. The class is not appropriate for those younger than 12. Feel free to BYOB to share with your friends or come early and bring a picnic dinner to enjoy on the deck. Visit www.deepcreeklavenderfarm.com for information.

The Studio: Make A Festive 4th of July Grazing Board

7 PM - 1550-D Deep Creek Drive at The Fort in McHenry (Lakeside). Just in time for your holiday picnic... join Lois as she teaches you the ins and outs of the latest foodie craze! From a classic meat and cheese platter to a healthy fruit and veggie centerpiece to a sweet candy board. Attendees will take home all the necessities to build their very own festive Fourth of July Candy Charcuterie Board including a bamboo board, dip bowls, and utensils as well as festive candies, popcorn, and dips from the extensive line of fun foods found at our sister store - A Mountain Fix. You may bring snacks, drinks, or adult beverages. For more info and to register, visit The Studio at Marsh Hill on Facebook, call (240) 258-8894, or visit www.marshhillmercantile.com.

SATURDAY, JULY 2

Red, White & Blue Day at Alpaca Farms -- By appointment only. Bring the family or a group of friends to Alpaca Acres for some summer fun on the farm! Start with a guided walk to visit the alpacas then enjoy red, white, and blue games, mountain slide, pyramid climb, jump pad, barrel train ride, cornhole, and more. Visit www.alpacaacresmd.com or call 570-851-8913 for reservations.

Kinder Haus Art Summer Classes

-- Spruce Forest Artisan Village, 10 AM & 1 PM. This week join us for Printmaking & Watercolor with Regina Holliday. Open to children 8 - 12 years of age, pre-register in advance. A suggested donation of $5.00 is appreciated to help offset the cost of supplies. To register or ask questions, contact Regina Holliday at reggieart123@yahoo.com or text 240-441-9664.

The Studio: Make a Dough Bowl Candle with Melissa from Mel's Candles

7 PM 1550-D Deep Creek Drive at The Fort in McHenry (Lakeside). Learn how to make a triple wood wick candle. Mix scent into the wax and pour into a rustic wooden dough bowl. Once things cool, embellish your candle with dried flowers and a ribbon to make it the perfect gift for yourself or someone special! You may bring snacks, drinks, or adult beverages. For more info and to register, visit The Studio at Marsh Hill on Facebook, call (240) 258-8894, or visit www.marshhillmercantile.com.

for their favorite boats, with a prize of a custom-designed Winner's Pennant and trophy. Entrants in the parade will need to pay a MINIMUM $50 registration fee, and the number of entries is limited, so be sure to pre-register to ensure your spot. Free for spectators along the route but bring your wallets and CASH so you can donate to vote for your favorite boat! You can also vote via Venmo, PayPal, or Credit Card (via Stripe)! Go to our site to see how: <http://www.deepcreeklions.org/Boat-Parade.html>.

SATURDAY & SUNDAY, JULY 2 & 3
Shop Artwork and Decor to benefit Habitat for Humanity – Marsh Hill Mercantile, Saturdays & Sundays through Mid- July, Noon to 7 PM on Saturday; Noon to 4 PM on Sunday. Marsh Hill Mercantile is excited to partner with Garrett County Habitat for Humanity to support the building of new Habitat homes! This is a great opportunity for residents to do some “spring cleaning” and even find some cool new decor for your home by shopping at The Gallery. Items donated will be displayed for sale and all proceeds benefit Garrett County Habitat for Humanity.

MONDAY, JULY 4

THE MIKE DROP

by Mike Fratz

Earlier this month, I stopped by one of my favorite hidden Garrett County gems, the Shawnee Trading Post. Located on Sand Flat Road in Deer Park, Shawnee Trading Post is one of the most unique, strange, and mesmerizing places you'll ever come across in the whole county.

This place is an endless wonderland of curiosities, like the towering wooden bull rearing on its hind legs surrounded by other carvings of buffalos and Native Americans and horses and a white-gloved butler with bushy eyebrows. The next time you can't find the right life-size buffalo statue or a giant gorilla sculpture, just stop in at Shawnee, they'll have what you're looking for!

During my last visit, there was a Gigantic Goofy Alligator holding out his arms as if to tell me I should buy both him and something else to nestle in his outstretched hands. I had to force myself not to grab the enormous stegosaurus displayed in Shawnee's courtyard.

My mother and her husband, Steve, came here once for a small lawn sculpture or water feature and left with a bright yellow 1975 Volkswagen "Thing" convertible. It wasn't the most practical vehicle, but they couldn't leave there without it. It was parked just inside the double doors. Getting out, the classic car had about two inches on either side.

On the way back from a trip to Swallow Falls, I saw a black bear and two cubs. We slowed down to let them cross the road. I was just glad to have been in my car and not meeting them face-to-face on a hike. After growing up nearly my entire life in the county, I know the old adage about getting in between cubs and their momma. Well, we tried to avoid that at all costs, letting them cross the road and heading on our way. Nothing like a brush with some of the most majestic creatures in our area to remind you how close we are to nature.

The Garrett County Chamber of Commerce hosted its Annual Membership Meeting and Dinner the other week. The 'Helmuth and Evelyn Heise Award for Entrepreneurial Spirit' was awarded to Billy Weissgerber, a longtime pillar of the community and owner/partner of Railey Realty. I've been enjoying going to the Chamber events this spring. This time, I saw many familiar faces mixing with people I haven't seen since before Covid-19. Helmuth and Evelyn's son, Martin Heise, gave a very charismatic speech detailing Billy's high school antics and career in the shadow of his parent's big legacy. Once again Martin outdid himself by spinning a stirring tale of Billy's life story and the road to success as an entrepreneur. The whole room was laughing along as the two old friends cracked jokes and Martin held court. I ran into Betsy Spiker Holcomb and her husband Bob, Jodie and Joe Refosco, and Chad and Laurel Taylor.

I made an appearance at The Harbor Bar at Dutch's for the Annual HART fundraising party in late May. I brought my poodle Penny and she ordered meatballs off the custom Dog Treat Menu.

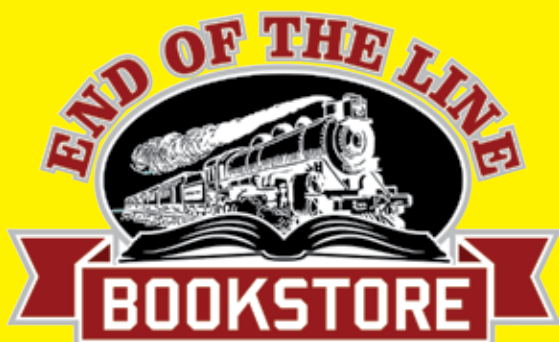

Collen and I visited a relative who has been having some health issues at the Goodwill Mennonite Home in Grantsville. Collen created a painting to hang in his room based on an old kayaking photo. Hopefully, it brings him some color in the otherwise drab room and sparked some memories from earlier in his life. The facilities at Goodwill are nice and clean. They look like they run a tight ship. The two young women who dropped into the room while we were there were beyond helpful and nice 30 minutes. All the vendors are unique and offer something worth seeing. I sent my mom to get some CBD products from Meadow Mountain Farm to help us get to sleep and relax Penny when the thunderstorms roll in.

After I chatted with the folks at Firefly Farms about their latest arrays of cheeses, I started to get hungry. So, for a late lunch, I grabbed a sage burger from Wildom Farm and my cousin Julie Friend, who owns it. It was delicious. The pickled veggies really contrasted nicely with the fresh bun from Wild Ember.

Christmas Chalet & The Tourist Trap

Two of Garrett County's "Must-See" Shops

Although Christmas may be several months away, those that truly love the holiday are always on the lookout for that special ornament or holiday decor to commemorate the season. For that as well as great gifts, apparel, and kid's toys, Christmas Chalet and its sister store The Tourist Trap need to be on your "must-sees" of any Deep Creek vacation.

Located in the Mountain Village Shops along Route 219, both Christmas Chalet and The Tourist Trap offer three full levels (3000 square feet each) of everything you need to make your vacation complete. Their selection of gifts, decor, and more will fit any budget and style from fun and funky to elegant.

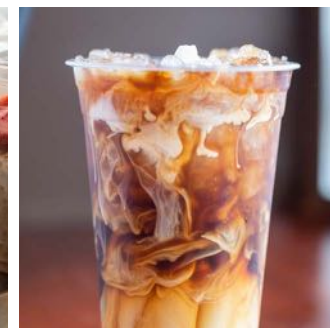

The Tourist Trap has been a Deep Creek Lake staple for over 30 years. Originally opened in the summer of 1990 by Kathy Kessler at The Fort in McHenry, The Tourist Trap has evolved and expanded ever since, moving into its current 3000 square feet space in 1995 when it became neighbor to Christmas Chalet, originally owned by Kathy's good friend Jan Shafer. Sadly Jan passed away in 2005 but her husband Gary and daughter Angela, along with their fine staff, have worked hard to keep her legacy alive. They purchased The Tourist Trap from Kathy in 2013 and have expanded the store and added their own fine lines of merchandise.

Through the years, Angela has seen many changes to the retail industry, most recently, of course, the Covid-19 pandemic and subsequent supply shortages. She has worked diligently to keep her business solvent and well-stocked for her clients, old and new.

"It's been refreshing to see so many new faces at the lake," says Angela. "We love meeting new customers and learning about their experiences in Garrett County. We're very happy that our long-time clients keep coming back to see us too."

Of course, one of the most important components of Christmas for many of us are the ornaments. Whether it's a fully themed elegant color scheme or a hodge-podge of ornaments depicting life events, Christmas Chalet has the perfect ornament for you.

From traditional Nutcrackers to Halloween ornaments, you'll find it here.

The store features over sixty "themed" trees filled with ornaments depicting various professions, sports figures and teams, and various family activities. Other trees boast snowflakes, crystal ornaments, Old World glass ornaments, and everything in between.

To really make it special, you will also find a huge variety of ornaments that can be personalized on site – a thoughtful gift for friends and family alike. If you like to collect ornaments from your favorite vacation spots, be sure to check out their array of Deep Creek Lake ornaments, which change yearly. This year's ornaments depict aerial photos of the lake and are not to be missed.

Collectibles remain popular and Angela offers new pieces each year from perennial favorites like Jim Shore, Snow Babies, and the ever-popular Department 56 pieces. Be sure to check out their newest village based on National Lampoon's "Christmas Vacation", "How the Grinch Stole Christmas", and "Game of Thrones".

You'll also find lots of originals here as well. Have a friend going through a difficult time? Gift an inspirational ornament from "Heart Gifts by Theresa", gorgeous hand-crafted glass ornaments with hand-painted sentiments.

In fact, Christmas Chalet has gift ideas for everyone on your list, no matter the season Their new line of spiral candles (unique because they burn in a circular motion) have become very popular and their succulent sentiment ornaments make a thoughtful gift for everyone from house sitters to your favorite teacher.

Pet lovers need to check out their expanded section honoring your favorite four legged creatures. They offer a variety of ornaments, socks, mugs, hats, and more featuring dozens of different animals.

Those who think Halloween is the best holiday of the year need to visit the Christ-

According to Angela, gnomes remain very popular for collectors as well. She carries gnome Santas, plush and Halloween gnomes, and of course gnome ornaments.

What keeps the store so popular even after 27 years is the ever changing stock. "We have about ten vendors that we have used since the store opened that come out with new merchandise each year. We also like to bring on several new vendors each year to bring in exciting new offerings for our customers," she adds.

Love the trappings of Christmas but have no time to decorate? Rent a tree from Christmas Chalet! Home and business owners can rent a fully decorated tree for the season. Angela and her staff will bring in the tree and all decorations, set it up and then take it down after New Years. This is a popular option, so please book early if you are interested.

While the Tourist Trap is a separate store, it is a great accompaniment to the Chalet. Primarily a gift and souvenir shop, the Trap offers great Deep Creek Lake-themed apparel for all ages and sizes. They have over 50 original Deep Creek Lake designs covering t-shirts, sweat-shirts, hoodies, hats, and more, you're sure to find some great apparel as a memento of your Deep Creek vacation.

Your children will love the great selection of kids apparel and toy section, featuring Melissa and Doug merchandise as well as a nice selection of water toys. Kids will also love Animaland where children can build their own stuffed animal. They pick from 25 different types of animals, then stuff them and sign the official adoption papers. At only $30, it is a wonderful gift for any child to own something they created themselves.

They have also expanded their garden section so shoppers can find a nice selection of flags, birdhouses, and wind chimes. They also carry the new Adventure Maps

by local Chris Nichols which include The ULTIMATE Garrett County Adventure Map, The ULTIMATE Deep Creek Lake, and Garrett County Towns Map, and The ULTIMATE Garrett County Map

One of the things that makes shopping at these stores such a pleasure is the fun and friendly staff. Angela is proud of her participation in the Workplace Diploma program sponsored by the Garrett County Chamber of Commerce. She has hired several of their graduates who are trained to give the ultimate in customer service in their workplace and is excited to have them on her team.

Christmas Chalet and The Tourist Trap are located at 19895 Garrett Highway (Rt. 219), just across from Pizzeria Unos. They are open daily from 10 AM to 6 PM throughout the summer. Be sure to check out their newly updated website at www.christmaschalet.com.

Garrett County Arts Council Spotlight: Funding!

By Mary Sincell McEwen of The Garrett County Arts Council

The Garrett County Arts Council (GCAC) held its annual membership meeting on Friday, June 17, at the Oakland offices. The party was attended by approximately 90 guests, and the annual business meeting during which funded grants were announced took place. The GCAC awarded a total of $46,475 in grant funds to 15 arts organizations, non-profits, schools, and local governments. Of the 15 awards, one grantee was new to GCAC funding. The organization also awarded 10 Independent Artist Awards totaling $6,050 and one Emergency Artist Relief Fund award of $500. The total Community Arts Development Grantmaking impact was $53,025, as announced by Kathy Beachler, executive director of GCAC.

The grant approvals were released in May and officially announced at Friday's event. The meeting included music by local favorite Buffalo Run, performing on the Front Page Stage. Numerous artisans had booths set up as well, selling their created wares. The artisans stayed on Saturday as, taking part in the town of Oakland's Kickoff to Summer.

The organizations allotted General Operating Grants this year are the Barn Quilt Association of Garrett County, Garrett Lakes Arts Festival, and Spruce Forest Artisan Village. All three organizations provide a wide range of arts and arts endeavors that enrich the county in so many ways, Beachler said.

Those receiving Program/Project Grant Awards are as follows: Broad Ford Elementary School, Deep Creek Lake Lions Club, Friendsville Days Inc., Garrett Choral Society, Garrett Community Concert Band, Grantsville Lions Club, Highland Festival of Garrett County, Oakland Heritage Community Foundation, Our Town Theatre, Southern High School Theatre Program, Town of Kitzmiller, and Town of Mountain Lake Park.

Independent Artist Awards were allotted to a number of local artists in music and visual art. Those receiving grants in music are Sean Beachy, Moe Turrentine, Gino Mauricci, Fred Jacoby, Matt Eary, Rick Milne, and Stephan Moylan. Those receiving grants in visual art are Francis Precht, Caroline Blizard, and Julie Turrentine.

GCAC also awarded one requested Emergency Artist Relief Fund Award of $500 (Awardee is kept anonymous).

Beachler noted that all grant applications were reviewed and scored by a group of six independent jurors from the community/region.

The funding is vital for these organizations and individuals, according to some of the recipients. Lindy Moebs, the president of the Garrett Choral Society, said that both the choral group and the Garrett Community Concert Band, of which she is a board member, depend heavily on Arts Council funding.

"Expenses for a non-profit aren't what people think," Moebs said. "Folks ask me why we sell tickets if we're 'non-profit.' They expect our concerts to be fundraisers for some other cause, as if we pull in the bucks by putting on a show. Sadly, that's not the case."

In addition to the prices of music and to cover the small stipend for conductor Sean Beachy, the band also has funded $15,000+ in scholarships for its student band over the years.

"The percentage of our expenses covered by ticket sales is pretty much next to nothing, especially for the band," Moebs said. "Donations from private individuals is not a huge amount, either. So GCAC funding is truly vital for both organizations, and we appreciate it."

Mary Mateer, the executive director of the Garrett Lakes Arts Festival, also had words of gratitude for the annual support of the GCAC.

"The Arts Council provides grant funding that has been essential to GLAF programming for over 20 years. GLAF has been able to bring a wide selection of quality programming to our community due to these funds," Mateer said. "In addition, the partnership with the arts community that the Arts Council provides has been another valuable resource for GLAF."

Don Sincell, an organizer of the Town of Mountain Lake Park's Victorian Chautauqua for which the GCAC grant will help fund, said the money helps to keep the weekend celebration free for guests.

"Multiple art forms, including music, drama, dance, writing, and craft arts, can be enjoyed at our Victorian Chautauqua Festival and VC Writers Workshop, so we believe our festival is a perfect fit for the criteria needed to be awarded a grant from the Arts Council," Sincell said. "We also take great pride in the fact that every single program at our weekend festival is free of charge to our guests, and such would not be possible without the generosity of the Arts Council and other sponsors. So we extend our sincere appreciation to the council and all who provide financial support.”

Erin White, theatre teacher at Southern High School, was very grateful to be granted funding for her students’ production of Spongebob the Musical.

“The generous funding by the GCAC made it possible for our seniors, who have missed out on the spotlight during COVID, to return to the stage in full power for their final show,” White said. “We are so very grateful.”

As part of the annual meeting, new GCAC board members were announced as well as the slate of officers for the coming year. Beachler gave a warm send-off to outgoing president Kendall Ludwig and to longtime board member Susan Johnston. Welcomed to the board were the new members Cherie Krug, Garrett College Foundation, and Emily Tobin, Garrett Regional Medical Center Foundation. Beachler also noted the slate of officers, which is Stephanie Murphy, GCAC Board president, Mikal McCartney, vice president, Dave Bruffy, treasurer, and Thomas Vose, secretary.

Fire on the Mountain Slated

Fireworks will light up the sky this July 4th as the Garrett County Chamber of Commerce presents the annual “Fire on the Mountain” Fireworks Display.

The display is set to begin around 9:30 PM. The fireworks are launched from the top of the Tubing Park at Wisp Resort. Prime viewing locations include the Scenic Overlook on Route 219, Wisp Resort, local businesses in McHenry, and from a boat on the lake, particularly around McHenry Cove.

“I would like to thank all of our Fire on the Mountain sponsors; we could not put on such a fabulous show without their support,” said Sarah Duck, Vice President of Tourism & Marketing at the Garrett County Chamber of Commerce. “Be sure to take advantage of the Independence Day activities throughout the area! On Sunday, July 3rd, head to Broadford Park Recreation Area in Oakland for live patriotic music and their Independence Day fireworks. On Monday, July 4th don’t miss Accident’s Homecoming including their parade before wrapping up your celebration with a big bang at our Fire on the Mountain Fireworks display.” Check the online calendar of events at visitdeepcreek.com/events for full event details.

Wisp Resort is the Premier Sponsor of this year’s event. The Associate Sponsors are: Deep Creek Shop ‘N’ Save featuring Mountain Flour Bakery; Huey’s Ice Cream; Bear Creek Traders; Perkins Restaurant and McHenry Beverage Shoppe compliments of Hugh Umbel and Ray Schurg.

The Supporting Sponsors are Property Owners’ Association of Deep Creek Lake; and Taylor-Made Deep Creek Vacations & Sales. Contributing Sponsors are Railey Realty; Railey Vacations; and Silver Tree Marine, LLC. Special Sponsors are Garrett Container Systems, Inc. and Slopeside Market.

Additional sponsors are: BFS Food Stores/Burger King in McHenry; Bill’s Marine Service; David Jochynek – State Farm; Deep Creek Marina; Ella’s Enchanted Treehouses; First United Bank & Trust; Flying Scot, Inc.; Funland Family Fun Center; Humberson Homes, LLC; LakeFront Lodge; Lake Pointe Inn; OMG Relax; Rush Services; The Greene Turtle; Total Biz Fulfillment; and Turnbull, Hoover & Kahl, P.A..

The rain date is July 5. If there is inclement weather on July 4th, please check visitdeepcreek.com, or the Chamber’s Facebook page at facebook.com/deepcreeklakemd, or tune your radio to 104.5 WKHJ, 92.3 WKTD and 1050 AM WMSG radio for updates on the status of the fireworks.

Dragon Boat Festival Slated for August 27

Dove Center is bringing creative fundraising to the forefront, after weathering two consecutive cancellations of their major fundraiser, Festival of Trees. The cancellations came at a time when COVID had created a perfect storm for domestic violence and other forms of abuse. The number of clients served increased 32%, and the number of services provided to those clients increased 135%. To help counter this, Broadford Lake will come alive with the sounds of plunging paddles on Saturday, August 27, for the first annual Mountain Maryland Dragon Boat Festival. The Dove Center will be partnering with Dynamic Dragon Boat Racing from Tennessee to hold this exciting event, and all proceeds will benefit the Dove Center in providing services to victims of domestic violence and sexual assault.

Holding teams of 20 paddlers, plus a drummer and a steerer, these 46-foot-long Dragon boats will race a course of approximately 200 meters in heats of up to three boats. Times from the first two heats will be averaged to determine which teams move on to the championship race.

Individuals of any skill and experience level are invited to participate, and community members, agencies, and businesses are invited to put together their own teams. In addition to watching the event, the community is invited to browse craft and food vendors and enjoy free games for children and families. Admission to the event will be $5 per vehicle.

Teams will have the opportunity to practice together with the guidance of professionals the week before the event at a designated team time. Team registration will be a minimum of $1,300, however, teams are challenged to raise $2,000, either by dividing the registration among the team members or securing sponsorships. Prizes will be awarded for the top placing teams, highest money raising team, and other fun categories. The event will create an invigorating opportunity for friendly competition, community spirit, and connection, all while utilizing one of Garrett County's beautiful outdoor resources.

Sponsorship opportunities are still available! There will be three levels of sponsorship: Gold Medal Sponsors ($5,000), Silver Medal Sponsors ($3,000), and Bronze Medal Sponsors ($1,000), details of which can be found on the website listed below. In-kind sponsorships are also available for the following services: hotel or lodging for Dynamic Dragon Boat staff, meals for Dynamic Dragon Boat Staff for the week, and gift certificates for giveaways and prizes.

We would like to thank our sponsors to date, which include: Gold Sponsors: Garrett Regional Medical Center; Silver Sponsors: Railey Realty, Taylor-Made Deep Creek Vacations, First United Bank and Trust, and VW Brown; Bronze Sponsors: Greenscapes, Deep Creek Design Studio, Red Barn Vacations, Justin Gregory; and Friends of the Festival: Clear Mountain Bank, Vagabond Taproom, A Duff, Total Biz Fulfillment, and Pat Hanline Excavating.

Craft and food vendor spaces are available. They will be without electricity, and vendors will need to bring their own tent, tables, and chairs. Vendors may contact vthomasdove@gmail.com or ask call 301-334-6255 to receive a vendor application.

Team registration is now open, and can be completed on-line at <http://dovecenter.betterworld.org/events/mountain-maryland-dragon-boat-fe>. To become an event sponsor or vendor, contact Heather Hanline at 301-334-6255 or ordovecenter@gcdovecenter.org. Victorian Chautauqua Returns!

Story & Photography by Mark Stutzman

The Victorian Chautauqua will unfurl its second year in the Historic District of Mountain Lake Park on July 9 & 10, 2022. The weekend following the 4th of July marks the annual celebration of the town's history as Maryland's original Chautauqua that was established along the B&O Railroad in 1881. With free admission and parking, this family-friendly festival has quickly grown to become a premier summer event in Garrett County.

The festival features live historical performances, music, lectures, activities, food, artisans, antique market, the Ticket Office Museum, Historic District Trolley Bus tours, and an entire program dedicated to children.

The 40 by 80-foot Martin Tent in Leo Martin Memorial Park will house historical portrayals and live music. The Burlington Tent of equal size will house lectures and live music. The Deaconess Tent will present Kid-Tauqua programming for children which has been generously funded by Samantha Funding the Arts. The Historic Assembly Hall adds a perfect venue for some presentations requiring an indoor space.

A special kick-off fundraiser, Dinner on the Diner, will be held Friday, July 8th from 6:00 PM until dark. A special menu has been created by Chef David Haynes who with 40 years of experience has been an executive chef or owner of several notable restaurants in Fredericksburg, Virginia. The theme is centered on railroad dining cars with three meat dishes, one vegetarian, and one vegan entree from which to choose. Tickets are available online with a link conveniently featured in an orange banner at the top of the website. The proceeds benefit the Victorian Chautauqua program.

Saturday's programming features performances beginning at 11:00 with the controversial U.S. President, Warren G. Harding portrayed by Bill Grant. Traveling from New Jersey, Keith Hanley will present the acclaimed agricultural scientist George Washington Carver, and renowned journalist Nellie Bly will be reenacted by the award-winning actress JoAnn Peterson. Live music will include songs from the Civil War by songwriter Philip Gerard, The West Liberty World Music Ensemble with African drum workshop and steel drums concert led by Dr. Mitch Greco, and from New York, violin and piano with Dale Stuckenbruck and Haewon Kim playing works from the turn of the last century. Stuckenbruck has also perfected playing an ordinary hand saw with a bow which he will delightfully demonstrate. A unique storytelling duo called Crankies uses shadow puppetry in a delightful return to Victorian-era entertainment.

For youngsters, "Ranger Champ" will present campfire singalongs with a special guest appearance from Smokey Bear. Jo Ann Dadisman will dazzle kids with an interactive show called Puppets & Play. Between shows, the little ones can participate in making bubbles, face painting, tie-dyeing, and make & take projects. All the children's programs and activities are free of charge.

Saturday will also include a Model T Showcase by the Mason Dixon Ts. Certain drivers will be offering Historic District joy rides in authentic vehicles from the early 1900s. The chapter president, Bill Ramsey, will share his passion for America's most popular car under the Burlington Tent on Saturday as the showcase opens. Attendees will also delight in seeing Brian Birkner wiz by on his high-wheel bicycle. He will be demonstrating this early bicycle model and be providing a lecture about cycling history on Saturday.

As the daytime activities come to a close, the TeenPunk Silent Disco will begin at 7:30 and last until dark and is funded by Edward Jones. Admission is free but limited to youth that include rising freshmen through 2022 high school graduates. Sound Fusion Entertainment will provide the sound and transmit music to 100 LED lighted headset from SoundOff Entertainment (first come, first served). When the headsets are on, the dance party is on. Otherwise, it's silent. Games and prizes will round out the event, and a light show will emerge as the sun goes down to make for a spectacular teen social event of the summer. More details can be found online.

Throughout the entire weekend, food vendors will be serving up festival favorites including D's Eats pulled pork barbeque, grilled cheese, and Italian subs. The Winner's Circle will serve hotdogs, crabcake sandwiches, steak subs, tacos, Italian sausage, and pepperoni rolls. The Rollie Pollie Eggroll Factory offers unique flavor blends in a classic eggroll wrapper along with sweet treats. One of Deep Creek Lake's favorite stops, Lakeside Creamery, will hand scoop ice cream in cups and cones. The FIRST Robotics Team's authentic hand-pressed lemonade and Rotary

French fries are well-known local favorites. Attendees should arrive hungry since food will be served throughout the day and include lunch and dinner menu items.

Artisans will be displaying hand-made pottery from Deep Creek Pottery, jewelry from Wirestorm Creations, textiles from Crimson Shamrock Ranch, quilling from Practiquils, and wood carving from Bowl Weevil Works. Country Parson Honey will offer an array of bee products and Meadow Mountain Hemp will share their full line of locally grown CBD products including tinctures, topicals, and edibles. Featured artists will turn back time. Lauren Munev will take commissions for hand-cut silhouette profile portraits made popular at the turn of the last century, and wet plate photographer Chris Jones will accept commissions for tintage or glass plate photos, an early photographic technique that captures modern-day as if it were 100 years ago.

An expanded antique market by Carriage House Antiques will also be offering a curated collection for anyone looking to treat their Victorian fever. Treasures large and small will be on display and available for sale. Local deliveries can be arranged for larger pieces.

The fun continues through Sunday beginning at noon. Notable Smithsonian Scholar and actor, Mary Ann Jung will be performing her favorite historical figure, Clara Barton, best known for founding the American Red Cross. A lecture about Custer's Last Stand will be presented by acclaimed author and historian, Steven French. A secular Ol' Fashion Hymn Sing will be held in the historic Assembly Hall building, and the first woman to cross the English Channel, Harriet Quimby, will be portrayed by actor Sara Sincell.

A unique portrayal by Sallie Wooddell Stuart of Julia Ruhl, a former Mountain Lake Park resident, will bring to light the newly discovered influence Ruhl had on the women's suffrage movement and passing the 19th Amendment that granted women the right to vote. A marker dedication honoring Ruhl's suffrage contributions will follow the performance at her beautiful former cottage on G Street.

The second annual Beard & Mustache Contest will crown a new 2022 Hairyman champion. All contestants can register throughout the weekend for the chance to

The Bright Siders, a duo from Tennessee and New York will sing songs to help children connect to their emotions. Dr. Sally Dhruva's Stephenson will present Strange Instruments, and "Ranger Champ" will return with more campfire singalongs. Kevin Dodge will present Sounds of Garrett County's Natural Night Shift, Hoots, Toots, Peents & Peeps. To wrap up the day, the award-winning GaCo Robotics Team will present a robot demonstration.

From Goshen, Indiana, The Ted Yoder Band will be the featured musical performance closing the Victorian Chautauqua weekend. The four-piece ensemble was built around Ted Yoder who was named a National Hammered Dulcimer Champion in 2010. After a backyard video went viral, Yoder collected millions of views and became known as the barefoot "Dulcimer Dad." He has released seven beloved and critically-acclaimed solo albums including his 2019 album Feels Like Home, which was nominated for Best Instrumental Album by the Independent Music Awards.

This unique band features Ted Yoder on the hammered dulcimer, Sarah Haag on marimba, Toby Hazlett on fretless bass, and percussionist Doug Haag. Their musical arrangements are soothing and succulent to the mind, body, and soul.

Just as the festival weekend wraps up, the Writers' Workshop series begins on Monday, July 11 through 15. The workshops have been generously funded by Community Trust Foundation, Landon's Library, and Friends of Ruth Enlow Library. A wide selection of writing disciplines include, Children's Books, Playwriting, Poetry, Creative Writing for Teens, Songwriting, and two youth workshops for grades 3-5 and 6-8. Full details are available online by selecting the "Workshops" tab in the main navigation. A public reading will be held on Friday, July 15 to showcase the week's work. All youth workshop tuitions are fully funded by Friends of the Ruth Enlow Library, and limited scholarships are available for the teen and adult workshops.

The Victorian Chautauqua is grateful to the many sponsors who make the event possible and free to the public. Grants were awarded from The Community Trust Foundation, Samantha Funding The Arts, Garrett County Arts Council, and The MD State Arts Council. Gifts from Landon's Library, Friends of Ruth Enlow Library, and The Joseph H. Wooddell Trust helped to offset costs. Local business sponsorships include John Rose with Edward Jones, J. Gregory Law Firm, L.C., Firewater Kitchen & Bar, and Arron's. Private donations were generously given by Laurie & Bill Grant, The Gilbert & Schlattman Family, Mary Helen & Bob Spear, Suzie & Don Sincell, and an Anonymous Donor Who Loves Mountain Lake Park.

Garrett County Chamber of Commerce Welcomes New President

The Garrett County Chamber of Commerce is pleased to announce the selection of the new President of the Garrett County Chamber of Commerce. After undergoing a search process that was advertised locally and nationally, William "Will" Wrobleski has been selected to fill the vacant position. Wrobleski was introduced to Chamber members at the Chamber's annual Membership Meeting & Dinner on June 2 at Wisp Resort and will assume the leadership role on June 20, 2022.

"I look forward to building on the achievements of the Chamber team and Board of Directors in advancing the Chamber's mission of supporting and representing Garrett County's business community and promoting the County's hospitality and recreation industry," said Will Wrobleski. "I'm grateful for the opportunity to lead the Chamber to continued success and eager to get to work on behalf of the Chamber's members."

The selection of Wrobleski ends a search process facilitated by a committee comprised of business representation from across Garrett County and led by Merlin Beitzel of Beitzel Corporation, who is a member of the Garrett County Chamber Board of Directors.

"Will Wrobleski is a seasoned leader who understands the complexities and opportunities in our community," said Beitzel. "Having him as the next leader for the Garrett County Chamber will ensure our organization remains relevant and continues to fulfill its mission of enhancing the welfare of business and stimulating the economic vitality in the Garrett County area for the benefit of the entire community. We were very impressed with Will's background and strong leadership roles and knew he was a great fit for this position. His leadership approach and varied experience is exactly what we need to help us coordinate the efforts of our terrific staff at the Chamber. He is well prepared for this role and will lead the organization with energy and distinction."

Wrobleski comes to the Chamber leadership role with an extensive background with various leadership roles. He brings over twenty years management experience with various political, non-profit, and community organizations to the role. He holds a master's degree in Public Administration from the University of New Hampshire and a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Vermont.

The Garrett County Chamber of Commerce is the largest professional business association in the region with 500 members representing every industry in the community. The mission of the Chamber is to organize, support and represent Garrett County's business community in advancing common interests and additionally to promote Garrett County's hospitality and recreation industry by attracting visitors to the county through comprehensive marketing. The Garrett County Chamber also serves as the Destination Marketing Organization and Heritage Area Management entity for the County.
