Part II: Selection Criteria – NOIA ESG EXCELLENCE AWARD

For each of the five selection criteria below, please provide clear and concise responses. Though supporting documentation is encouraged, any submission exceeding twenty pages will be returned to the submitter, who, if the submission deadline has not passed, may elect to resubmit it, accordingly. A panel of judges will evaluate the responses received in order to determine which company (companies) best met the award criteria. Additional information may be requested by any judge from the submitter in order to verify or clarify any of the information contained in a response or in the supporting documents (Note: Any supporting documentation submitted will be used for illustrative purposes only and will not be used to judge the submission).

Supporting the NOIA Foundational ESG Principles

Clearly explain how the submission relates to the NOIA Foundational ESG Principles and spirit of ESG performance:

- NOIA member companies provide the energy that is essential for our everyday lives and raises the quality of life of our communities, reducing poverty and hunger while promoting good health and well-being.
- We operate in coastal and ocean environments with safety, health, environmental protection and sustainability as core values.
- We share a commitment to a high standard of corporate citizenship and continuous improvement in environmental, social and governance performance.
- We recognize the risks of climate change and the need for continued action. As innovators, we are committed to contributing solutions and best practices to optimally balance societal and environmental needs.

Institutionalization

Describe the ESG model or system used by the organization which has enabled it to achieve its remarkable success. Describe the investment in resources, including time, personnel, capital, and equipment (if applicable), that is directly responsible for the success. Identify the person, process or implementation technique used to immerse the organization into a higher performing ESG program.

Achievement

Describe how the entry is a significant ESG achievement, rather than simply recognition of normal company operations. Describe in detail, by one or more examples (including applicable metrics), how your ESG initiative has progressed environmental, social, and/or governance goals.

Documentation

Please provide documentation of the actual or reasonably anticipated tangible results of the entry. This also may include outside or independent reviews of the entry. Submissions must be 20 pages or less. Applicants are welcome to provide links to ancillary sources within the applications.

Industry Adaptability

The company (companies) ESG culture should be an inspiration or an example to the entire offshore energy industry. Please explain the steps taken or elements of this model that could be adoptable by other companies or useful to a wide segment of the industry.

Please email a pdf version of your submission to Justin Williams at jwilliams@noia.org by Friday, July 29, 2022. You should receive a confirmation email from NOIA within 48 hours of receiving your submission.
Please note: Submissions exceeding 20 pages will be immediately returned.
