Acknowledgments

Many thanks to our federal partners for their ongoing efforts and support of treatment courts throughout the nation:

Additional thanks to our partners whose efforts contribute to this conference and treatment courts nationwide:

Organization of American States

Inter-American Drug Abuse Control Commission

Points of view or opinions expressed during RISE by speakers or in written materials do not necessarily represent the official position or policies of the U.S. government, nor any of its entities.

On behalf of All Rise, welcome to the preeminent conference on substance use, mental health, and justice reform, and welcome to beautiful Anaheim, California!

As you navigate dynamic sessions, hear from engaging speakers, enjoy inspirational entertainment, and form new personal and professional bonds, we hope that you walk away from RISE renewed, inspired, and with a new understanding that you are not alone in the vital, lifesaving work of treatment courts.

RISE is a place where we come to uplift and encourage one another and remind ourselves that there are tens of thousands of professionals, just like you, putting in the long hours and going the extra mile to make recovery a reality in your community.

This year's program is as robust as ever, with more than 270 sessions and 36 tracks, offering as many as 22.75 hours of continuing education credit on the most pressing issues in this work. We are once again offering a track specific to treatment court alumni, the fastest-growing segment of RISE attendees; these individuals in recovery are rising up and becoming prominent leaders in their communities, and we are grateful for their growing contribution to our movement.

Thank you for your leadership, your advocacy, and your dedication to individuals impacted by substance use and mental health disorders in the justice system. We know what happens when we give these individuals a fighting chance: We know that when one person, one family, one community rises, we All Rise.

Sincerely,

Stanley Goldstein Treatment Court Hall of Fame

The Stanley Goldstein Treatment Court Hall of Fame honors individuals who have made indelible contributions to the treatment court field – those whose work not only has improved individual court programs but has also enhanced the treatment court model and movement. Named for the nation’s first drug court judge, the Goldstein Hall of Fame is the highest honor All Rise bestows.

2024 Stanley Goldstein Treatment Court Hall of Fame Inductee: Carol Venditto

For 25 years, Carol Venditto dedicated her time, energy, and talent to assessing and responding to the needs of treatment courts, leaving an indelible mark on hundreds of programs and thousands of treatment court professionals.

Carol began her career in 1981 as a probation officer in her home state of New Jersey. In 1997, she led the effort to bring two grant-funded, pilot drug court programs to Union County; in 2002, she became New Jersey’s first statewide drug court coordinator. As a result of her remarkable leadership, New Jersey became the first state to make these programs available in every county.

A fierce advocate for treatment and recovery, Carol was devoted to educating justice and treatment professionals. As faculty for All Rise, she helped develop and deliver curriculum across a variety of training initiatives, always with a profound respect for the research and a unique ability to transfer it to practice.

It is fitting that Carol receive this honor in the same year that the second edition of the Adult Treatment Court Best Practice Standards is released. Carol was a vital member of the initial standards committee and was instrumental in developing the second edition. Her input was detailed, robust, thoughtful, and constructive, and her voice can be found on nearly every page.

“Love Letters”

A.R. Gurney

DIRECTED BY CAMERON WATSON

May 22, 2024 | 2:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Location: ACC North 200

Code: SB-22

This session does not offer continuing education credits.

All Rise is proud to bring A.R. Gurney’s play “Love Letters,” starring Martin Sheen and Melissa Fitzgerald and directed by Cameron Watson, to RISE24! A unique and imaginative theater piece, “Love Letters” is composed of letters exchanged over a lifetime between two people who grew up together and went their separate ways, but continued to share confidences. As the actors read the letters aloud, what is created is an evocative, touching, frequently funny but always telling pair of character studies in which what is implied is as revealing and meaningful as what is written down.

Last fall, in honor of Recovery Month, Martin Sheen and his “West Wing” castmate and All Rise Director of Strategic Engagement Melissa Fitzgerald performed A.R. Gurney’s “Love Letters” to sold-out audiences at the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington, D.C. Now, the pair reunites for a single, not-to-be-missed performance at RISE24 on Wednesday, May 22, at 2:00 p.m. in ACC North 200.

General Sessions

WEDNESDAY, MAY 22

GENERAL SESSION I

11:15 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

What's New, What's Changed, and What the Second Edition of the Standards Means for Your Program

The first edition of the Adult Drug Court Best Practice Standards set treatment courts apart as one of the most effective, successful justice system innovations in history. In the more than 10 years since their release, no provision has been retracted. Now, All Rise has released the second edition of the standards, renamed the Adult Treatment Court Best Practice Standards. This second edition offers more comprehensive guidance for how all adult treatment courts can improve outcomes. In the first general session of RISE24, the standards' principal author and All Rise Senior Scientific Consultant Dr. Doug Marlowe will walk through what's new, what's changed, and what the second edition means for your program.

Location: ACC North 200
Code: GS-1

GENERAL SESSION II

11:15 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Now What? A Deep Dive on Standard V and the Challenge of Putting Treatment and Recovery Management Into Practice

Person-centered, outcome-driven treatment helps participants change and grow in recovery. Standard V: Substance Use, Mental Health, and Trauma Treatment and Recovery Management provides treatment courts with a blueprint for better outcomes in treatment and recovery. But how do we apply the principles contained in this standard to the unique and specific situations that commonly arise in our treatment court programs? In this innovative session, renowned psychiatrist and addiction specialist Dr. David Mee-Lee will walk through Standard V, answering questions frequently asked by the treatment court field using real-world scenarios to provide tangible solutions.

Location: ACC North 200
Code: GS-2

FRIDAY, MAY 24

GENERAL SESSION III

11:15 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Making Treatment Courts Work

Decades of research have shown treatment courts to be the most effective justice system intervention ever developed for high-risk individuals with substance use and mental health disorders. When implemented properly, treatment courts promote long-term recovery, reduce reoffending, strengthen families, and improve community safety, all while reducing costs. However, the treatment court model is complex, and adhering to best practices can be challenging. In this session, All Rise Chief of Training and Research Carolyn Hardin and Treatment Court Institute Director Vanessa Matthews will discuss practical strategies for maximizing treatment court success.

Location: ACC North 200
Code: GS-3

SATURDAY, MAY 25

GENERAL SESSION IV

11:00 a.m. – 12:15 p.m.

The Gold(en) Standard: The Science, Practice, Ethics, and Boundaries of Drug and Alcohol Testing

Since the first edition of the Adult Drug Court Best Practice Standards was released more than a decade ago, the science and practice of drug and alcohol testing have changed dramatically. As the retired director of the Toxicology and Drug Monitoring Laboratory at the University of Missouri Health Care, and principal author of Standard VII: Drug and Alcohol Testing, Paul Cary will share the latest facts, address frequently asked questions from the field, and provide updated content related to trauma-responsive testing for illicit substances.

Location: ACC North 200
Code: GS-4

Treatment courts are committed to ensuring equitable access and opportunities for all eligible individuals who need their services, regardless of race, ethnicity, gender identity, sexual orientation, or other cultural attributes. Treatment courts continually examine whether cultural disparities exist in their programs, and take reasonable corrective measures in accordance with best practices to eliminate any disparities that are identified.

Patients are our passion.

Together, we can tackle the opioid addiction crisis.

The opioid crisis is a national public health emergency, and the criminal justice system is also feeling the impact of the epidemic. People using opioids have a 52–77% chance of becoming involved in the criminal justice system. Opioid use disorder can be treated effectively with medication, and such medication is not only effective, but can save lives.<sup>1</sup>

All Rise is the leading training, membership, and advocacy organization for advancing justice system responses to individuals with substance use and mental health disorders. All Rise impacts every stage of the justice system, from first contact with law enforcement to corrections and reentry, and works with public health leaders to improve treatment outcomes for justice-involved individuals. Through its four divisions—the Treatment Court Institute, Impaired Driving Solutions, Justice for Vets, and the Center for Advancing Justice—All Rise provides training and technical assistance at the local and national level, advocates for federal and state funding, and collaborates with public and private entities. All Rise works in every U.S. state and territory and in countries throughout the world.
