

Rommie's direction took a complete about turn that day she drove home from her job in Logistics to hear her cat tell her she's hungry and wanted to know when she would be home. Rommie heard it like her cat was in the passenger seat. For decades she had worked in the male dominated industries of logistics and construction and this day caught her completely off guard. It would be a conversation that would alter the course of her life.

"Rommie is a powerhouse of energy, passion and knowledge. She is personable and a true professional clearly driven to push mindset boundaries- and that she does. Rommie walks her talk with great influence and credibility. This has opened me up to a whole new way of thinking."

~ Turina Lawrence

ABOUT ROMMIE'S WORK

Rommie has two sides of passion- finding missing things and animal welfare. Like a dog with a bone, she will do whatever it takes to help locate that missing person, item or business disparity. Intuitive Investigation is a powerful tool when used in an investigation team! On the other side, Rommie is committed to changing the perceptions around how we understand and communicate with animals so we can become the people we need to be so they are more consciously cared for. She has energy to burn when sharing pressing messages that educate, inspire and increase consciousness around the wellbeing of animals.

SPEAKING TOPICS

TOPIC 01

Beyond Logic: The Intuitive Investigator's Edge

They see what can't be seen, they know what can't be known, they feel what no one else can feel. Enter the world of Intuitive Investigation, an often frowned upon field and tool that can greatly assist in solving what seemingly cannot be solved. A secret weapon that can uncover the truth behind the cold case, the missing money, the lost cat, the family heirloom!

The Power of Intuition: Inner GPS in Action

On a daily basis we are constantly having to make decisions. Some easy, others challenging, particularly if they're pressure decisions. We all get stuck in indecisiveness when we don't have to. Why? Because we all have an inner GPS; it's called Intuition and when we learn to understand it, we can make smart decisions faster.

Unlocking Deeper Connection: A Path to Harmony

We can communicate with animals freely if we choose to break the perceived limitations that communication can only occur between species. Animal communication is our natural state of being. We start by shifting our thoughts then our attitudes and the actions will follow.

TESTIMONIALS

"Rommie is one of those rare gems that when she gets up to speak you sit up and listen. She immediately engages you with her teachings and speaks clearly with passion and conviction. I always keep my eyes peeled for any upcoming workshops or speaking events as I know that when Rommie is facilitating I will not only learn useful information to incorporate into my every day life but will be challenged to dig deeper within myself. I always feel like I stand a little taller for the experience."

~ Kelly Saunders

"Rommie is a natural born storyteller and weaves tidbits of life experience and her own development to the imparting of knowledge. Her trainings are informative, at times fun and at times bring tears as animals tell their truth. Rommie's authenticity creates a supportive and engaging backdrop from which learning and growth is encouraged."

~ Michelle Stevens

"I have been to a couple of Rommie's trainings and I find her to be an exceptional teacher and speaker. She clearly is passionate about her work and this comes across in spades. Rommie is energetic and engaging and holds a room with ease."
