Hebrews 2:14-15
Jessica Gracewski

Hebrews 2:14-15
Since the children have flesh and blood, he too shared in their humanity so that by his death he might break the power of him who holds the power of death—that is, the devil— and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by their fear of death.

What kind of Savior has come to us?

Christ the Savior from the fear of death.

Hebrews 2:14
Since the children have flesh and blood…

The manger points to the cross.

God’s nearness precedes resolution.

“God, be with me.”

Naming: What We Are Actually Enslaved By

Hebrews 2:15
…and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by their fear of death.

The Fear of Death

Staying: The Cross Without Despair

Our tears are not failures of faith.
Our grief is not a lack of trust.
Our lament is not disobedience.

Hoping: Death Defeated by Death

Hebrews 2:14
…by his death he might break the power of him who holds the power of death.

Jesus does not merely survive death, He robs it of its authority.

Invitation: Resurrection as Gentle Courage

Hope is spacious.

Jesus refuses to let fear have the final word.
